Emily Alexandra Cosmetics was created by Emily Alexandra Guglielmo in 2018.

Headquarter: Florida, United States

Emily is known as "The American Mermaid" aka The Florida Mermaid. Through the years, being a scuba diver, mermaid, model, and ocean enthusiast, she decided to create a cosmetic line that not only was good for your skin, but safe for the oceans and coral reefs!

While traveling the globe performing mermaid shows and appearances, she continues to spread the word on ocean conservation while promoting brand awareness to Emily Alexandra Cosmetics.

For every purchase, a Portion goes directly to SupportingWater.org.

Emily Founded SupportingWater.org in 2017 to pursue her passion for water in support to bring drinking water to Third World Nations in new, innovative ways!

Emily crafted her cosmetic collection with love, inspired by performance artists from Key West buskers to Cirque du Soleil. Inspired by the creative evolution of the mermaid and unicorn movement on social media, she thrives on helping playful beauties share their love of wild color, sparkle and shine. At Emily Alexandra Cosmetics we've tapped the top insider insight from theatre makeup artists and seamlessly channeled it into a highly wearable, customizable line for passionate beauties to bring their fantasy forward into the world. As a social media savvy brand, our bold pigments are designed to pop in both still photography and video capture.
