Salt water taffy is a tasty treat that is a mouthful sweet and salty. There are many different flavors of taffy and all are delicious. Taffy is great in springtime, summer, and even winter. Taffy doesn't actually contain seawater but the story goes that it came from one stormy night in 1883 seawater from the Atlantic Ocean flooded a coastal Taffy shop owned by David Bradley and the joke goes that seawater soaked his entire stock of Taffy. Making him renamed his Taffy "saltwater Taffy". Now, take a bite out of a taffy and you are transported back to the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean and the board walk, yet on a beautiful Summer day. Life is beautiful with the sweet and salty taste of Taffy.
