

A Proper Courtside Drama!

The fun way to explore!

Murder Mystery

...arly hours of yesterday mor
a body was found and has not bee
as yet but police warn the publi are holding interviews with th
...ects are on the

THEME

DURATION

Can you solve the mysterious case of
"The Umpire's Last Call"?

The Umpire's Last Call

The All England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club was in turmoil yesterday following the murder of legendary umpire, Diddy Seeit. Police know it was a current or former player because a message was written on the wall beside the body, it said 'Advantage Me Now!'.

Before he died Diddy left some bizarre clues as to who did it. Can you work out who it was?

Start here

You will find the answers to these clues on the internet. Good luck.

Clue 01

The one whose signature looks like this, did not do it.

Photofile

239014X

Did you know?

Up to 54,000 tennis balls are normally used during the tournament, each one hand-tested for weight, bounce and compression, and stored at exactly 68 degrees Fahrenheit.

Clue 02

Eliminate from your enquiries the one who was born in Wiesbaden, Germany.

Clue 03

The one who has recorded the second-fastest serve for a woman in an official WTA match is innocent and can be released.

Clue 04

The one whose nickname is 'pistol' did not commit this crime.

Did you know?

More than 29,000 kilos of English strawberries are normally eaten by spectators at Wimbledon each year, topped by 7,000 litres of cream.

Clue 05

Eliminate one who has won 15 career Mixed Double titles.

Did you know?

Yellow balls were first used at the Championships in 1986 and are collected by a total of 200 ball boys and girls who have all undergone a rigorous training programme.

Clue 06

Eliminate the player who has made a guest appearance on 'Sabrina - the Teenage Witch'.

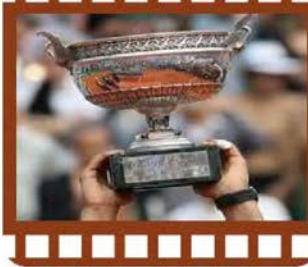

Factfile...

The famous Wimbledon turf is a mixture of 70% perennial rye grass and 30% Barcrown creeping red fescue. It is cut to a height of exactly eight millimetres.

Clue 07

You can cross off the one who has won this trophy the most times.

Photofile

Factfile...

There have been only five years since the Championships moved to this location that there has been no rain during the event - 1931, 1976, 1977, 1993 and 1995.

Clue 08

Remove from your enquiries the player who is the only one ever in history to win Olympic Gold and the US Open back to back.

Clue 09

Eliminate the player who is married to a player who has won 22 grand slam titles.

Case solved?

Well done. You should now be left with just one suspect. Click on the link in the webpage to see if you are right!

Suspect Gallery

Martina Navratilova

Pete Sampras

Rafael Nadal

Boris Becker

John McEnroe

Andre Agassi

Venus Williams

Andy Murray

Roger Federer

Andy Roddick

Cross off a suspect with each clue. The remaining player is the guilty party.

* Please note - not all images are representative of actual players.

