

Poetic Acrostic

To celebrate the life of William Wordsworth, this acrostic has a poetic twist! Solve the clues below and enter your answers into the boxes next to them - one letter per box. Once solved, the letters in the numbered boxes can be copied into the matching numbered boxes below.

This will give you a quote from a piece of prose written by a famous poet, who happened to be friends with Wordsworth. The first column of your answer grid, when read vertically, will reveal this poet's surname!

1. A plant that looks like a daisy; used to create tea that helps you to sleep.
2. A device used for cooking.
3. Bait used in fishing; to tempt a person or animal into a particular location, usually with a reward.
4. The highest mountain, above water level, on Earth.
5. Flowing water, often headed towards the sea.
6. Never ending; without limits.
7. Tiny drops of water on the grass in the morning.
8. Feed on growing grass; snack regularly throughout the day.
9. Add a video to a blog or web page; plant an idea in someone's head; fix in place.

	1	8	13	4	13	17	2	6
	18	6	7
	11	9	6
	18	6	9	6	16	5
	17	18	6	9
	7	10	17	7	17	5	6
	6	3
	9	8	12	6
	13	14	6	15

5	1	6		10	8	17	9		14	9	6	6	12	6		14	2	6	3	,
5	1	6		3	1	17	5	6		10	4	8	13		10	2	6	3	,
5	1	6		10	11	9	9	4	3		10	4	2	2	4	3	6	15
10	9	6	6	;		3	6		3	6	9	6		5	1	6
10	17	9	16	5		5	1	8	5		6	18	6	9		14	11	9	16	5
17	7	5	4		5	1	8	5		16	17	2	6	7	5		16	6	8	.