

EDUCATOR COLLECTION

Great design is at the heart of our company. Our priority in play design is the safety of our children and your children. We use the ASTM Home Playground Safety Standard and the ASTM Standard Consumer Safety Specification for Toys as a benchmark and compliance standard to ensure our products are meeting the highest safety standard.

Furniture For Growing Minds

At Fern Kids, we are a team of uncles and dads who are passionate about creating eco-friendly and child-friendly furniture that inspires learning and growth.

We use sustainably sourced Baltic birch and child-friendly finishing, and our products are FSC Certified and CARB compliant. We are committed to promoting sustainable practices and materials, and we strive to make a positive impact on the world by empowering children to learn and play in natural and healthy environments.

Fern Kids are based in Ontario, Canada, where we design and manufacture our products with care and attention to detail.
