Hyperlite Rash Guards

The Hyperlite rash guard is the one that made us famous. These rash guards are lighter than most, and provide for a much more breathable training experience.

Made with a premium polyester/spandex mix, offering the perfect balance of stretch for athletic performance, comfort, and durability.

Designs are vinyl printed on Hyperlite rash guards, not sublimated.

Standard Rash Guards

Our standard rash guard material is what could be found in our classic V2.0 rash guards.

Made from a 220 gsm material, thick enough to endure the workouts it goes through, and thin enough to be breathable.

Overlock stitching and a sublimation printed design.
