3 ways to a better butt

For a smooth rear
 Kim Kardashian reportedly tried VelaShape, a noninvasive cellulite treatment that Dr. David Turok of American Laser Centers says has been shown to temporarily reduce butt size nearly 3 inches after four to six treatments (about $500 each).

No-surgery pick-me-up!
 Getting a perkier booty can be as simple as putting on a pair of Booty Pop Panties — undies with a little extra padding to help fill out a sagging pair of pants. Booty Pop Panties with microfiber, $35, bootypoppanties.com

For the ultimate lift
 To create a booty like J.Lo's, LA-based cosmetic surgeon Dr. David Matlock swears by Brazilian Butt Augmentation: He removes fat from the abs with Hi-Def Vaser Lipo-Selection and transfers it to the bum (up to $15,000).

MENA'S BEHIND IS PERFECTLY PERKY!
 "She has one of the best butts in Hollywood," says Dr. Rey about Mena Suvari's natural beach body. "She has a very athletic and youthful behind, with no sagging at all." So it's no surprise people want rears just like hers. Explains Dr. Rey, "Some of my patients request a butt they can set a tray on — and Mena has exactly that!"

TARA'S DERRIERE HAS DIMPLES!
 Tara Reid is famous for her botched belly liposuction, but Dr. Rey thinks she may have had some misguided work on her backside as well. "It seems she had lipo on the lower part of the buttocks, which I don't recommend," says Dr. Rey, who explains that removing fat in that region can make it sag faster.

HEIDI WOULD LOOK BOOTYLICIOUS WITH CARMEN'S BUTT
 Should some backside tweaks be next on Heidi Montag's makeover list? Says Dr. Rey, "Her gluteal region looks youthful, but she would look great with Carmen Electra's butt," which is rounder and fuller. Carmen's behind has the ideal shape — "an upside-down heart, which gives her an hourglass look."

Heidi could use a little boost from behind!
