

Flat Vernacular: A Bold Approach To Wallpaper Design

Flat Vernacular is a design studio founded by Payton Turner and Brian Kaspr. Their signature colourful patterned fabrics and wall coverings are a captivating feast for the eyes. "Pattern makes perfect" is the motto when it comes to creation, as each design blends a modern sensibility with traces of nostalgia. Bold large scale patterns and small tight repeat designs come in punchy colours or soft tones to balance any interior. Flat Vernacular's wall papers are painted and drawn to scale to ensure a harmonious result. The wallpapers are produced in two ways: screen prints are done by hand and digitally printed, made to order in 3-6 weeks. See more on their website:
