Are you looking? Are you looking at me? I am so clever. I can do lots of things. Are you as clever as me?

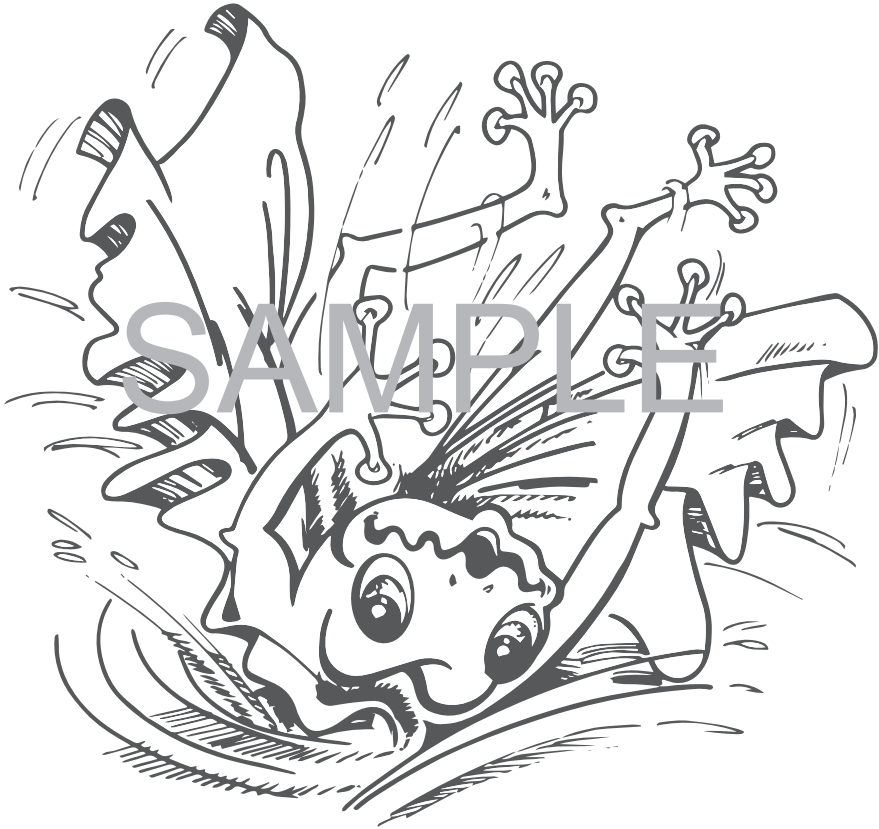

Look at me ! Do you like this bed?
Can you sleep on a bed like this? Are you as clever as me?

Is that so clever? Is that so good?
Look at me. I can run on the top.
Can you do that?

Oh, no !

Look at me ! Are you looking? I am so clever. I can jump to the top.

I can jump up. I can jump down. I am so good at jumping. Are you as clever as me?

Is that so good? I can jump too!
Look at me. I will jump to the top of this! Can you do that? Are you as clever as me?

Oh, no !

I am so clever. I can swim, too. Are you looking at me? Can you swim like me?

I am so good at swimming.

Is that so good? Is that all you can do?

I can swim. I can jump. I can roll. I can toss a ball, too !

That's not so clever. I can swim on my back. I can swim without looking!

Oh, no!

Comprehension and Discussion Questions

Pre-reading discussion questions

1. What is 'showing off'?
(Doing silly things to get attention versus doing sensible things to get attention. Doing sensible things, but hurt other people's feelings in the process.)
2. Why do people show off?
3. Do you know people who think that they can always do things better than you? (Have better things than you.) How does this make you feel?

Literal questions (during reading)

1. Page 4: Who is the frog yelling at?
2. Page 5: What is this dragonfly running on?
3. Pages 7 and 10: What are two clever things that the frog can do?
4. Pages 8 and 11: What two animals are not impressed by the frog?

Post-reading discussion questions

1. Do you think that this frog is clever? Why?
2. Page 8: Discuss fish that jump out of the water and/or swim upstream to breed.
3. What mistake is this frog always making?
4. What are the good and bad points about trying things that are hard?
5. Page 12: What is going to happen to the frog next?
