

Clio by ClearView Audio Named Edison Award Finalist

Clio will be recognized at the Edison Awards Gala on April 23 in New York

Wellesley, Mass. – March 9, 2015 – ClearView® Audio, the creators of the award winning nearly “invisible” Bluetooth speaker, Clio, announce today recognition as a 2015 Edison awards finalist. The internationally renowned Edison Awards™ are inspired by Thomas Edison’s persistence and inventiveness, and recognize innovation, creativity and ingenuity in the global economy.

“It’s exciting to see companies like ClearView Audio continuing Thomas Edison’s legacy of challenging conventional thinking,” said Frank Bonafilia, Edison Awards’ executive director. “Edison Awards recognizes the game-changing products and services, and the teams that brought them to consumers.” Award winners will be announced April 23, 2015 at the Edison Awards Annual Gala, held in the historic Ballroom of The Capitale in New York City.

Edison Award nominees are judged by more than 3,000 senior business executives and academics from across the nation whose votes acknowledge the finalists’ success in meeting the award’s stringent criteria of quality. The voting panel includes representatives from Chief Marketing Officer Council (CMO), Design Management Institute (DMI), American Productivity & Quality Center (APQC), American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME), Georgia State Marketing Roundtable (GSU), Product Development and Management Association (PDMA), Assoc. of Technology Mgmt & Applied Engineering (ATMAE).

“We’re thrilled to be considered for an Edison award,” says ClearView Audio’s CEO Stefan Bokamper. “Past winners include marketing professionals, scientists, designers, engineers and academics, and we are honored to join this illustrious group.”

The nomination comes at a fortuitous time for ClearView Audio just as the company builds momentum at retail. The speaker enjoyed a tremendously successful launch at the 2014 Consumer Electronics Show, winning two highly-coveted editorial awards including “Best in Show: Audio Category” from Engadget and the “Editor’s Choice Award” from Reviewed.com/USA Today.
