WHOLESALE CATALOG
2024

Hello!

My name is Melisa Beveridge and I am the artist and founder of Woollybear Travels. I am a Registered Veterinary Technician on a mission to make the world a better place for orphaned, injured, and rescued animals. Through Woollybear Travels, I go to animal sanctuaries around the world and volunteer my services as an animal nurse. I paint expressive portraits of my new animal friends and have them printed onto high-quality greeting cards, fine art prints, vinyl stickers, and flexible magnets. I tell their stories on the backs of the cards and prints. Rather than focusing on the sadness of tough situations, I keep the stories mostly light so I can encourage happiness and inspiration.

My collections consist of many donkeys (my favorite!), African animals, and farm animals. 10% of my sales go to the sanctuaries where the animals live to help provide for them and their animal friends.

MY PROCESS

- 1 Meet my new animal friend, Buddha, and get kisses.

- 2 Sketch Buddha, transfer to canvas, and then paint his adorable face.

Buddha

The first time I met Buddha he greeted me with a big cow smooch! Of course, I fell in love instantly. Buddha is a HUGE Holstein dairy cow. This gentle giant is over 2,000 pounds, nearly 6 feet tall, and has a kind heart with a playful spirit. His best friend is another cow named Rosa, and he loves her even more than he loves hay (and trust me, he LOVES his hay). He loves hay so much that he's outgrown his first barn and is still growing!

Happy Hen Animal Sanctuary stepped in to rescue him when he was just a week old. He had been removed from his mother at the dairy and did not get the important colostrum from her that he needed to thrive. This led to him becoming very sick and he had to be rushed to the hospital. It was touch and go for several months, but his strong will helped him pull through and make a full recovery! When he went outside for the first time, he literally jumped with joy.

Buddha reminds everyone who visits the sanctuary why animals deserve to be rescued, respected, and loved. He has changed the lives of many people just through his presence, and he showed me how gentle and sweet a cow can be. I adore him.

10% of this sale will be donated to Happy Hen Animal Sanctuary for the care of Buddha and his friends.

Visit happyhen.org

- 3 Write Buddha's story and design the cards.

WHOLESALE TERMS

SHIPPING

Orders ship from Nipomo, CA in 1-2 weeks from the order date via UPS or USPS and/or preferred method. If an item is on backorder, I will notify you immediately. Let me know if you require specific lead times or time-sensitive shipping terms.

CANCELLATIONS / REFUNDS

Refunds are only allowed with damaged items. If you receive damaged items, please let me know within 5 days of receiving your order and I will work with you to replace or refund the items. Cancellations are only allowed within 24 hours of your order.

PAYMENT TERMS AND BILLING

We accept credit cards (Visa, MasterCard, AmEx, Discover). Payment will be charged prior to shipping. Invoices will be sent electronically from melisa@woollybeartravels.com to the billing email address on file.

DISPLAY AND PACKAGING

All Woollybear Travels products must be displayed and sold in their original packaging. If Woollybear Travels products are sold online, credit must be given to Woollybear Travels in the product description. Retailers may not sell Woollybear Travels products on third-party online platforms (i.e., eBay, Amazon, Etsy) without obtaining prior permission from Woollybear Travels.

PRODUCT SPECIFICS

GREETING CARDS are blank inside, they come with a white envelope unless otherwise specified. The A7 Zimbabwe series has colored envelopes, as do a few other A7 cards. Cards are packaged in a flapless cello sleeve with a 1" x 1" sticker on the front stating "The story of the rescued animal is on the back of the card". If you would like the cards sent without the packaging and/or sticker, please let me know.

The colorful cards are size A7 (5" x 7") and the white notecards with pencil drawings are size A2 (4.25" x 5.5"). The pricing is the same for both sizes.

PRINTS are signed and enclosed in a cello sleeve. They have a white mat board backing included. The story of the rescued animal is written on a label affixed to the back of the cello sleeve.

STICKERS are unpackaged and have a label on the back telling an abbreviated story of the rescued animal. These thick, durable, vinyl stickers are approximately 3" x 4". They are weatherproof and dishwasher safe!

ORNAMENTS are packaged in a Kraft box with a clear slipcover. The story of the rescued animal is on the opposite side of the backer with the animal's name on it. They are 3" in circumference.

Thank you for your support!

GIVING BACK

10% of sales are donated to the sanctuaries where these animals live. Together, we help provide the love and care that they and their animal friends will need.

By purchasing my products you are not only supporting me to do more of this work helping animals, you are also supporting the sanctuary and the animals themselves!
