About P&G Professional

P&G Professional, the away-from-home division of Procter & Gamble.

P&G Professional provide key business decision makers with superior products and solutions designed to help their businesses thrive and make every experience count for their guests.

WHY P&G PROFESSIONAL?

- We understand the specific needs of businesses such as hospitality and design products accordingly, with a focus on cleaning, hygiene, and disinfection.
- Many of our products are proven to kill enveloped viruses such as Coronavirus and bacteria, and several are even effective on harder to kill non-enveloped viruses (like Adenovirus).
- We leverage P&G's superior technology, innovation and knowledge on cleaning built over the last 175 years.
- We serve you with leading brands your customers and staff know and trust.
- We provide outstanding service and equipment.
- It's a proven fact that guests notice and enjoy clean, hygienic environments.
- Thanks to P&G Professional, experiences are positive, people benefit and not surprisingly, businesses thrive.
