

BERLIN GREEN

At BerlinGreen we believe that green homes are the future of urban development. We want to change the places we live in – from dark urban apartments into healthy and green spaces. We have created a technology that enables everyone to grow fresh herbs and greens easily. We believe that combining technology with the magic of nature is the right path to go.

We are now looking for a Photo & Video Content Creator (f/m/d) to join our team and to support us in creating a strong brand for BerlinGreen.

Your Tasks

- Create photo and video content for our social media and deliver it to our marketing team
- Deliver new creative ideas for upcoming campaigns and promotions
- Edit photos and videos
- Source participants for photo and video creations and choose locations

Your Profile

- Experience in social media content creation: photo shooting, video, and graphics creation incl. postproduction
- Strong technical skills in camera operation, audio capture, screenwriting, post-production software and graphic communication software
- Completed studies in media, video production, communication or comparable (not a must-have if you have experience)
- German or English skills
- You love challenging tasks that require creativity. You have a good eye and creative brain
- You have a great sense of visual style and aesthetics
- You are a team-player and strive for collaboration, but also work proactively & independently – you can create content on your own
- You are passionate about our product and you want to revolutionize the indoor gardening industry with us

Your Benefits

- You will have direct influence on shaping the face and voice of our brand
- Join an innovative and fast-growing company
- Be part of our ambitious and international startup team
- A high degree of responsibility and freedom of design
- Flexible schedule and hours
- Very cool office in a co-working space for hardware startups: MotionLab Berlin

Sounds like a fit?
