BEEF CHEEK ROLLS

Ingredients: Beef cheek.

Description: Beef cheek rolls are a long, continuous strip of beef skin that has been tightly rolled up and baked.

Recommended for: Dogs of all life stages weighing 15 lbs or more.

Chew Time: This is a moderately lasting chew for large dogs, and a long lasting chew for medium and small breeds.

Sales Tips: A good alternative to traditional rawhide. These beef cheeks aren't as heavily processed - you can see all the different layers of the skin which remained intact. The rolled up shape will be more easily digestible compared to a shape such as a knotted bone. This chew is non-greasy and odorless, and a good recommendation for customers who are worried about chews that can cause a mess on their carpet. Safe for teething puppies to gnaw on - all new puppy owners need to learn about long lasting chews in order to keep their puppy busy and teach them which items are appropriate to chew.

Country of Origin: Brazil

Ways to Purchase: In bulk, 10 pieces per case, in a 6" length. Sorted by weight.
