Pehr is turning 5 years old!

When we launched five years ago, our prints were the foundation of the brand. As we've grown, it has become apparent that what people rely on us for is our quality, design and craftsmanship. The line has expanded from tabletop to include our exclusive cotton canvas storage, throws and accessories.

Five years later, Pehr has evolved to become a collection of elevated essentials. Essentials that are simple, modern, beautifully designed and carefully constructed. Ethical manufacturing, true craftsmanship and attention to detail are what make Pehr products unique. We strive to keep those qualities at the core of the brand and we're as committed to practicality as we are to design. We want to make beautiful products that you and your family use every single day. That is our mission.
