

We're looking for a DESIGN INTERN (product, textile & surface) to join our team in our Toronto office. In this developing role, you will be able to wear many hats, and will have exposure to all aspects of the organization.

Reporting to our Director of Product Development, this Design Intern will assist with delivery of brand relevant, modern and sophisticated designs and technical specifications on a variety of home, lifestyle and children's products and be involved with the execution of our social media, web presence.

We are a looking for an intern interested in textiles and working in the retail industry. The ideal candidate is someone who takes initiative, is reliable, dedicated and detailed oriented. This person should have strong conceptual, design and technical skills. Knowledge and experience with fabrics and soft goods is a plus.

What you'll be doing

- Create and design for new products, patterns and packaging
- Create detailed 2D illustrations to communicate with Sales, Marketing and Sourcing teams
- Research collection trends, themes, and concepts to develop and demonstrate a clear perspective for the brand/product.
- Collaborate and participate in brainstorming sessions of new product ideas
- Organize and manage all samples

Qualifications

- Strong working knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite (Specifically Illustrator, Photoshop & InDesign)
- Creative thinker passionate about product, surface/package design and development
- Ability to sketch, illustrate and communicate visual ideas
- Team player outlook with the skill set to handle multiple projects
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- Able to work under pressure to execute projects in short timelines
- Product, package or fashion design experience is a plus
- Must have a laptop with Microsoft Office

About Us

Pehr is an internationally recognized Lifestyle Brand.

Our Team is based in Toronto and leads all design, development and marketing of the collections. Meticulous attention to detail, brand consistency and clarity are intricately woven throughout our daily actions. All Pehr products are carefully and ethically manufactured in India. The brand is currently sold in over 1,000 retailers worldwide and through our own and E-commerce website, pehrdesigns.com.

pehr

Our culture thrives on passion and rewards hard work and loyalty. We look for articulate, innovative and bright people who are able to wear many hats, have an entrepreneurial spirit and are eager to learn.