Bucharest, Romania

Tolerance across Cultures Conference

We are very pleased to invite you to take an active part in the Tolerance across Cultures Conference that will be hosted at the Romanian American University in Bucharest, Romania during the period September 12-14, 2019. The daily events that we witness at all levels show that tolerance is the most needed ingredient in our life in order to enjoy peace in this world. The main purpose of this conference is to serve as a platform for discussions around the main theme which is building and sustaining bridges of tolerance between different cultures.

The conference will host a selected panel of keynote speakers and expect more than 350 participants, speakers, researchers and practitioners from around the globe. The door is open to submit proposals for papers and research. We have allocated the third day for optional post conference workshops as well as social program to visit and experience the Romanian culture and see more of the beauty of Bucharest.
