

Ben's Garden Declaration

We hold these truths to be self-evident, most importantly Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Wonderful.

We believe your home should tell your story.

We believe our handmade in New York pieces are always in style.

We believe everyone has at least one greenthumb.

We believe it is what's inside that counts.

We believe you should do what you love, so you love what you do.

We believe in the power of fruit, and always prefer Apples to blackberries.

We believe when a little is great, and a lot is better, then way too much is just about right.

We believe in practical, particular and appropriate.

We believe in the power of "thank you."

We believe the trouble with trouble is it starts out as fun.

We believe good things fall apart so better things can fall together.

We believe gentlemen open car doors, hold the umbrella and always sit after everyone is seated.

We believe recycling is chic, responsible and necessary.

We believe in the power of writing lists.

We believe it is never too late and it is better late than never.

We believe pets should be allowed everywhere we go.

We believe in perfect and in patience; however not necessarily in that order.

We believe if loving style is a crime, we plead guilty.

We believe there is never a web so finely spun it doesn't come to light.

We believe every day is a wonderful day.
