'This encyclopaedic work sets a gold standard in Tudor scholarship. Backed by extensive and authoritative research, it's a fabulous guide to the movers and shakers of Tudor England and an essential handbook for anyone interested in the period. Just stunning. I cannot recommend it highly enough.'

Alison Weir, author and historian

'An absolute treasure trove and a must for anyone working on or interested in the Tudor period. It is a rich resource with helpful contextual material, timelines, genealogies and beautiful illustrations which accompany the impressive number of biographies. It is a very useful reference work as well as an enjoyable read, recommended!'

Dr Elena Woodacre, FRHistS, SFHEA

'An invaluable and highly reliable source for anyone interested in the Tudors, lavishly illustrated and commendably straightforward to use.'

Dr Linda Porter, historian
