

LEARNER'S PERMIT PRACTICE TEST SCORES

On Friday, March 31, 2017, I passed my learner's permit test on the 1st try! While studying, I created this document. The "Page #" column represents the page(s) in the Driver's Manual Book that I read the same day I completed the online practice exams. Remember, driving is a privilege—not a right. Cherish the responsibility with humility and regard!
