

Signature Pendant Size Guide

You can order our signature pendants in any size you desire. Below you can see some of examples of sizes to give you an idea of the actual size. Please make sure that you print this in the actual size, so set your printer at 100%.

The dotted line indicates the actual size of the pendant you'll receive. The inside line is the border guide on our pendants, and also the size we go by when ordering.

Please know our pendants are all sawn out by hand by actual human beings, so kindly allow for small size discrepancies.
