

CENTENNIAL FANFARE

The Charlottesville Municipal Band
Charlottesville, Virginia
1922 – 2022

Charles J. Torian, Jr.

PROGRAM NOTE

The Charlottesville Municipal Band will celebrate its 100th birthday in August of 2022, becoming one of the oldest continuously operating community bands in the United States. Over the years its membership has grown from an original group of thirty men to about ninety men and women of all ages and professions.

The band performs about ten public concerts annually, but in recent years it has sponsored a number of smaller ensembles, drawn from its midst, to greatly expand performance capabilities, particularly in venues too small to accommodate the full group.

This animated Centennial Fanfare attempts to reflect the joyful exuberance of the Municipal Band. It celebrates not only the ensemble's performance gifts to the community, but also to its individual members, both present and past. Collectively, these musicians have dedicated tens of thousands of hours of rehearsal and performance to make the band what it has come to mean to all who experience the joy of music - seated either in front of, or behind the conductor's podium.
