LOVE

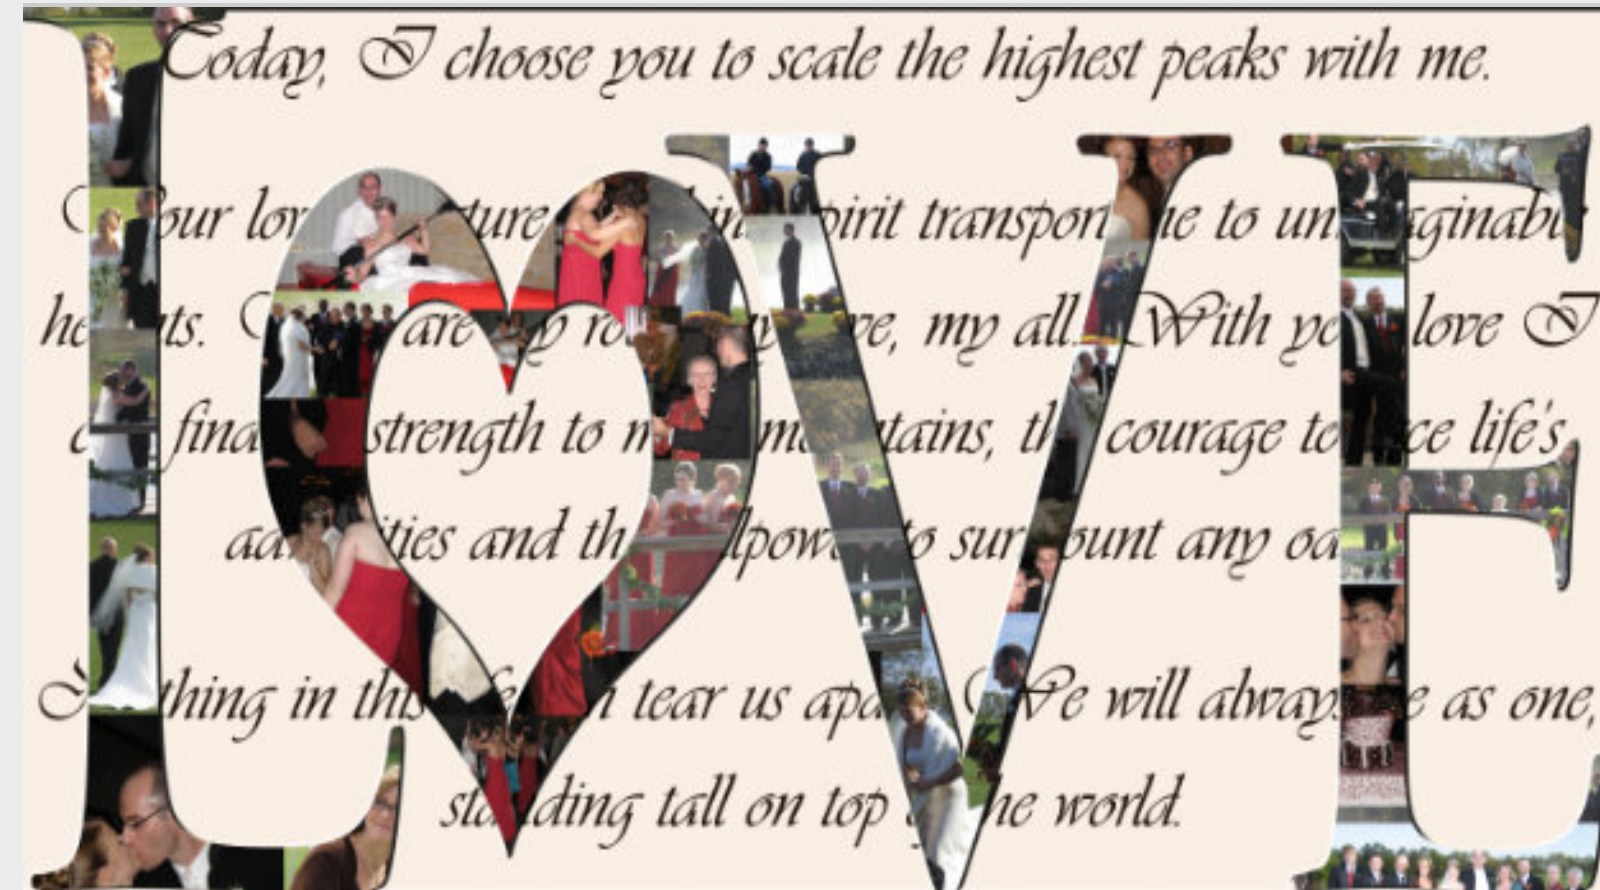

An ORIGIN

STORY

Love is our beginning. It is the opening line to our life together and our company. Sean created this first Christmas gift of L♥VE for Catherine from family photos after their wedding photographer disappeared.

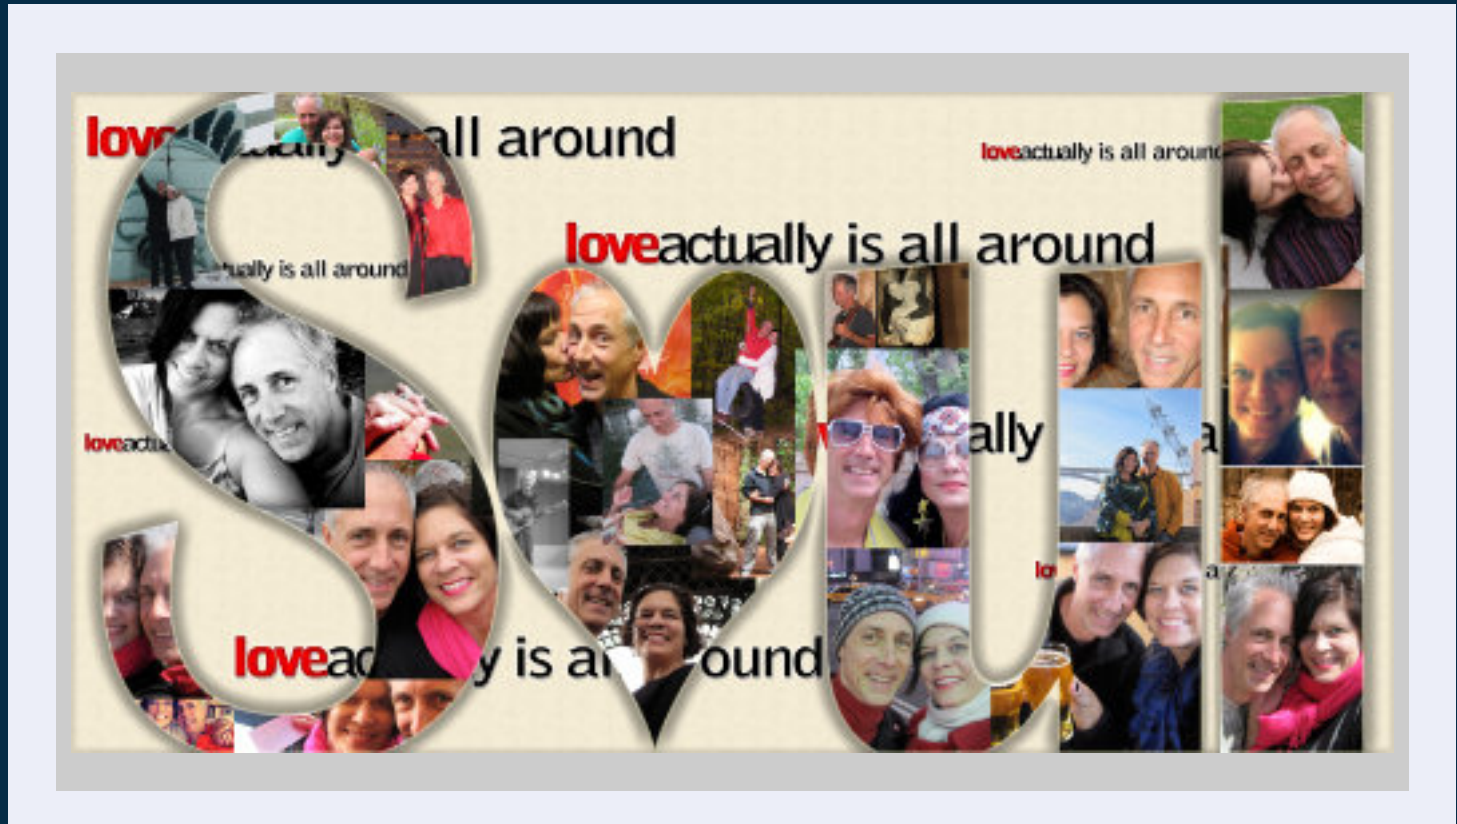

Nothing compares to your wedding day, so remember it well. We take the time to focus on your story and make your design as memorable as your day.

Reflections, Owners (Sean and Catherine) wedding day fountain reflects well against waters of a vacation on Orcas Island.

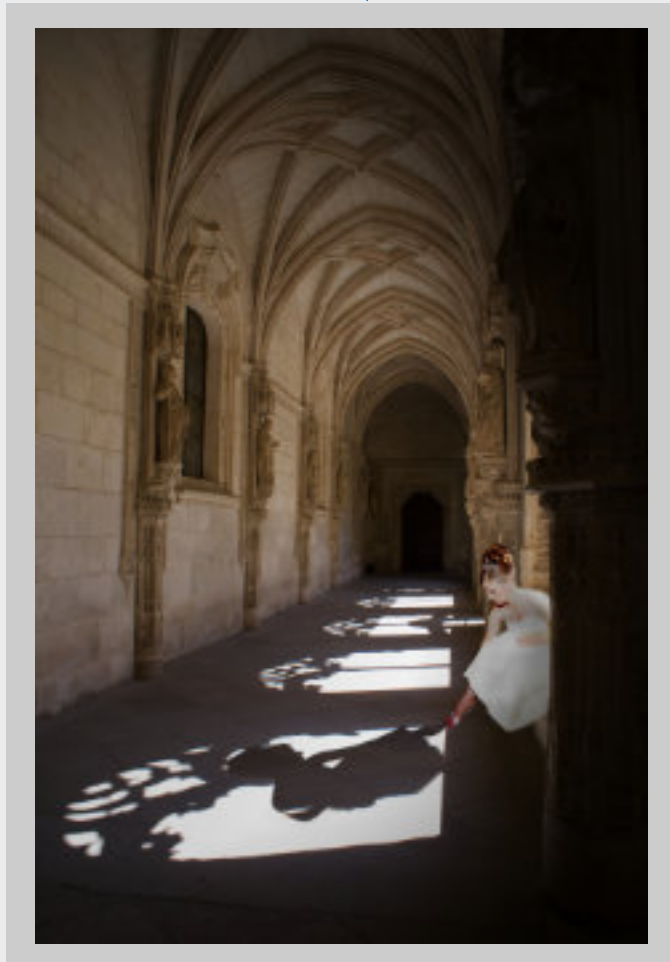

Opposite Snowy Invocation, from Surprised by May snow storm in CO. A cold outdoorsy couple were perfectly blended with warm indoor wedding guests.

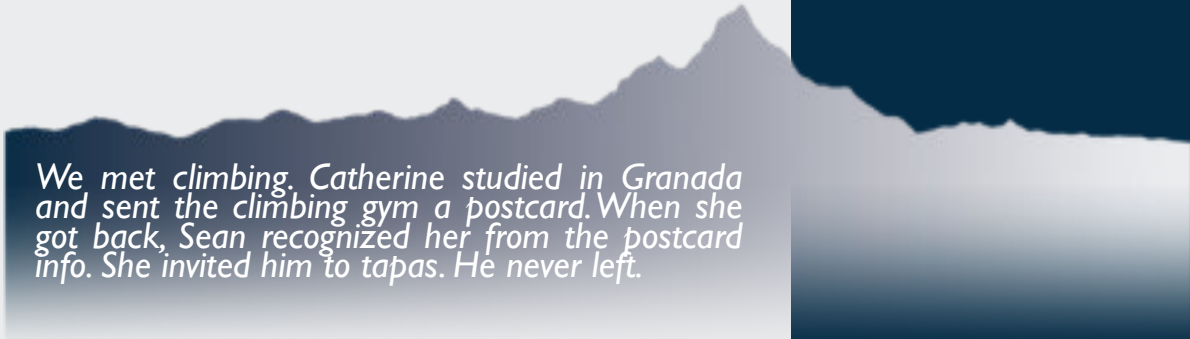

Walls of the Alhambra, owner Sean waiting for wedding time at the B&B in northern IL, and sharing that same hallway in Granada.

Cinderella of the Alhambra, owner Catherine gets ready for her wedding at a B&B in northern IL, but gets instantly transported to the Moorish palace in Granada Spain.

We met climbing. Catherine studied in Granada and sent the climbing gym a postcard. When she got back, Sean recognized her from the postcard info. She invited him to tapas. He never left.

Gifts come in all shapes and sizes.

Pet Friendly...

Well that's an understatement. Who doesn't like a sweet little puppers?

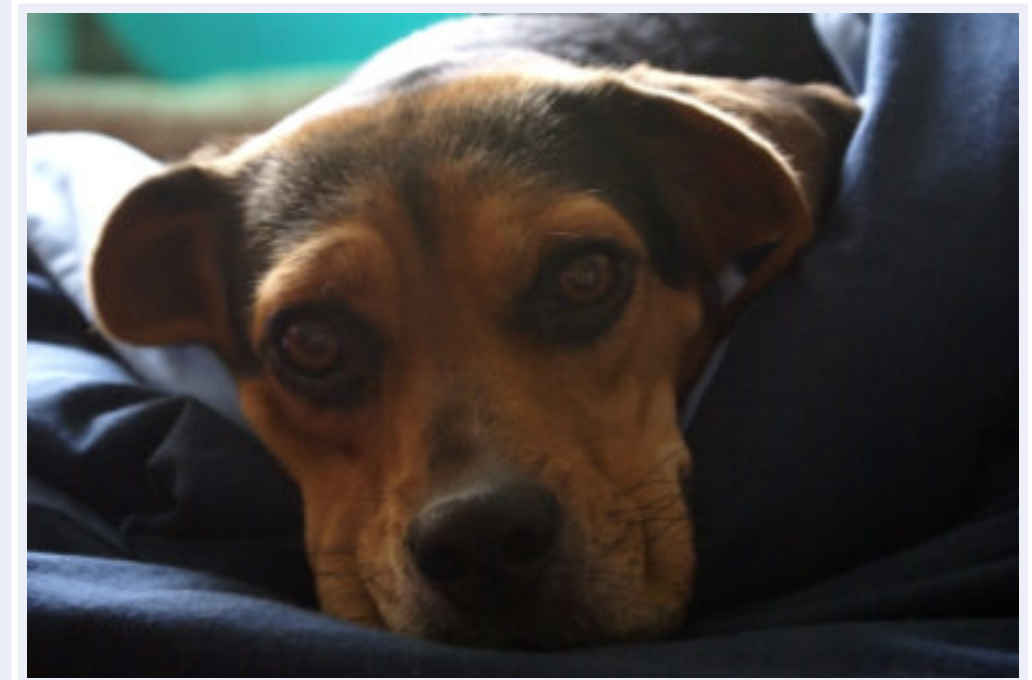

Beagle FX

Our company namesake is Bean, our first beagle. She tolerated our costumes, joined our adventures and ate...

Everything: jelly beans, cookies under beds, cookies in drawers, cookies on top the fridge, friend's sandwich, my breakfast, Catherine's snacks, her jacket pocket, our blanket, and probably another 100 pounds of stuff we've forgotten or that was otherwise lost. She was a great dog, and we miss her. Cheers to all the dog folks.

Love your dog

We clearly have an affinity for dogs. We hope you do too. We memorialized our beagles and continue to design things with our dogs in mind.

Opposite: that dog profile in our logo is the profile of our cookie eating beagle, Bean.

Bean, Chief Tester of Santa's Cookies

Lady Beaglade: Mocha Chocolata, Ya-Ya

Customer Christmas: Dashing Dog complete with Heirloom Ornaments

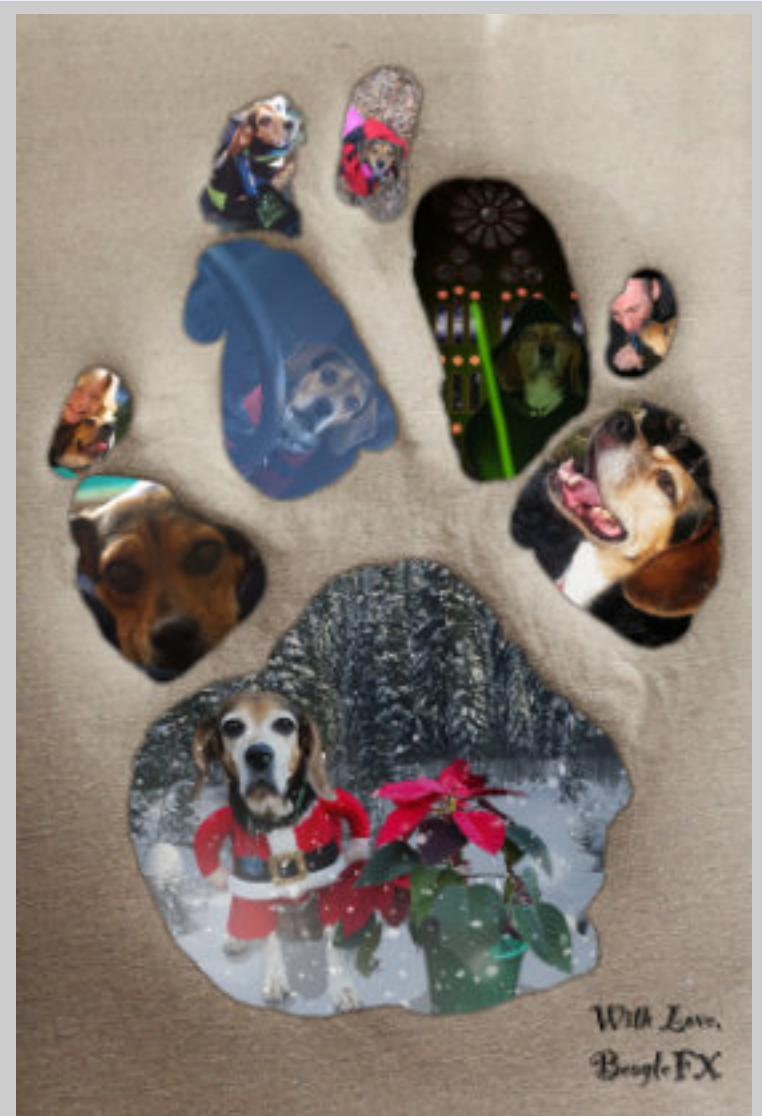

Dogs are hilarious. Bean tolerated our costumes. We've learned to digitize some flair.

Memories

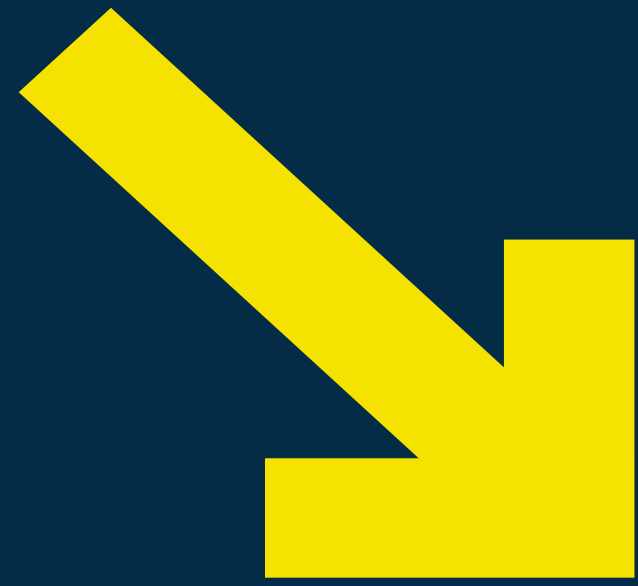

Love doesn't end.

This is Bean's actual paw-print. We had a cast done when she passed away. Sean digitized the paw's shape, placed it in a sandy background, added some shadows, and then tucked in some of our favorite memories.

The loss of a pet is pretty rough, to be quite honest. Here's to our little Bean and too all your lovable fur balls.

Fandom at:

Beagle FX

We've lived in the North, South and Western USA. We've even spent a fair amount of time in Spain. IL is where we grew up. The Cubbies will always be our team; even if it's our great-grandchildren that are next witnesses to a winning season.

If you're a baseball fan or MLB park hopper. Wrigley is pretty cool. We fanatically dressed up our game room with photos from all our trips to Chicago.

Memories are more than...

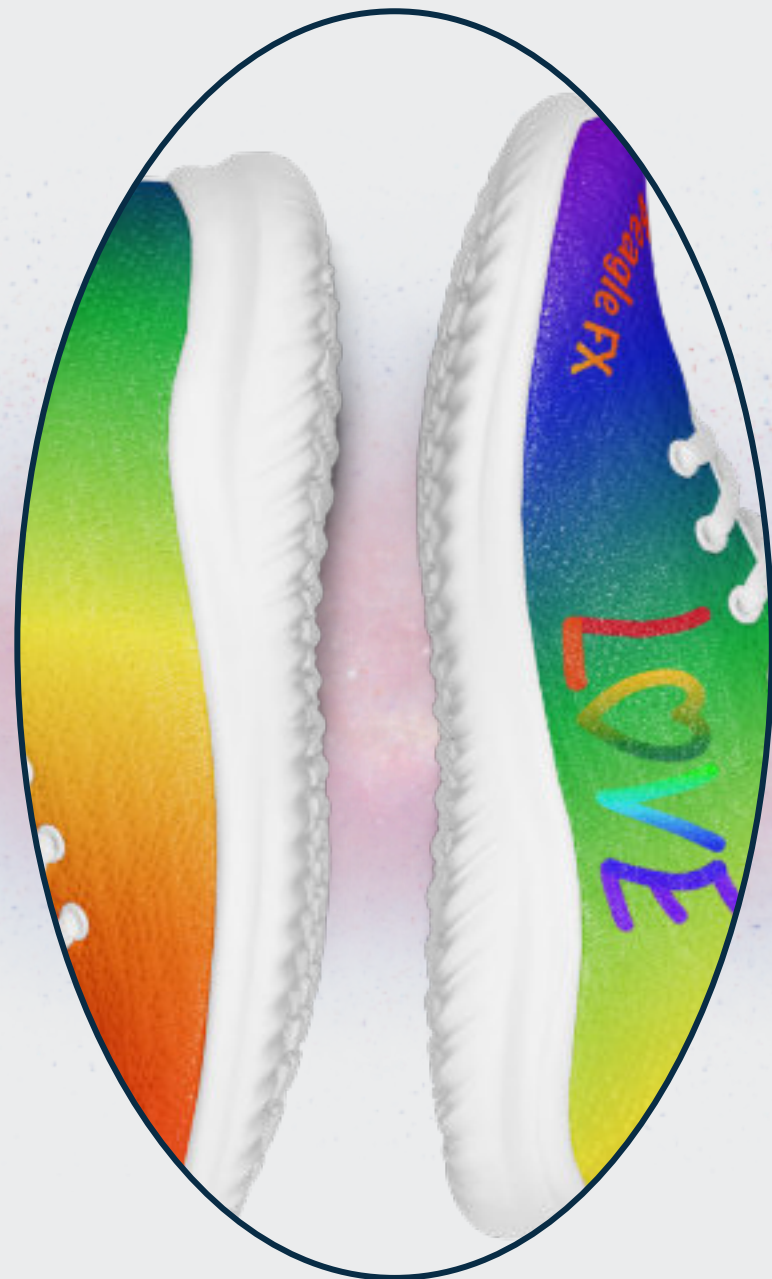

...Memorials.

We can document your hobby and passion like no other.

A Jersey From the Darker Side of Dogs

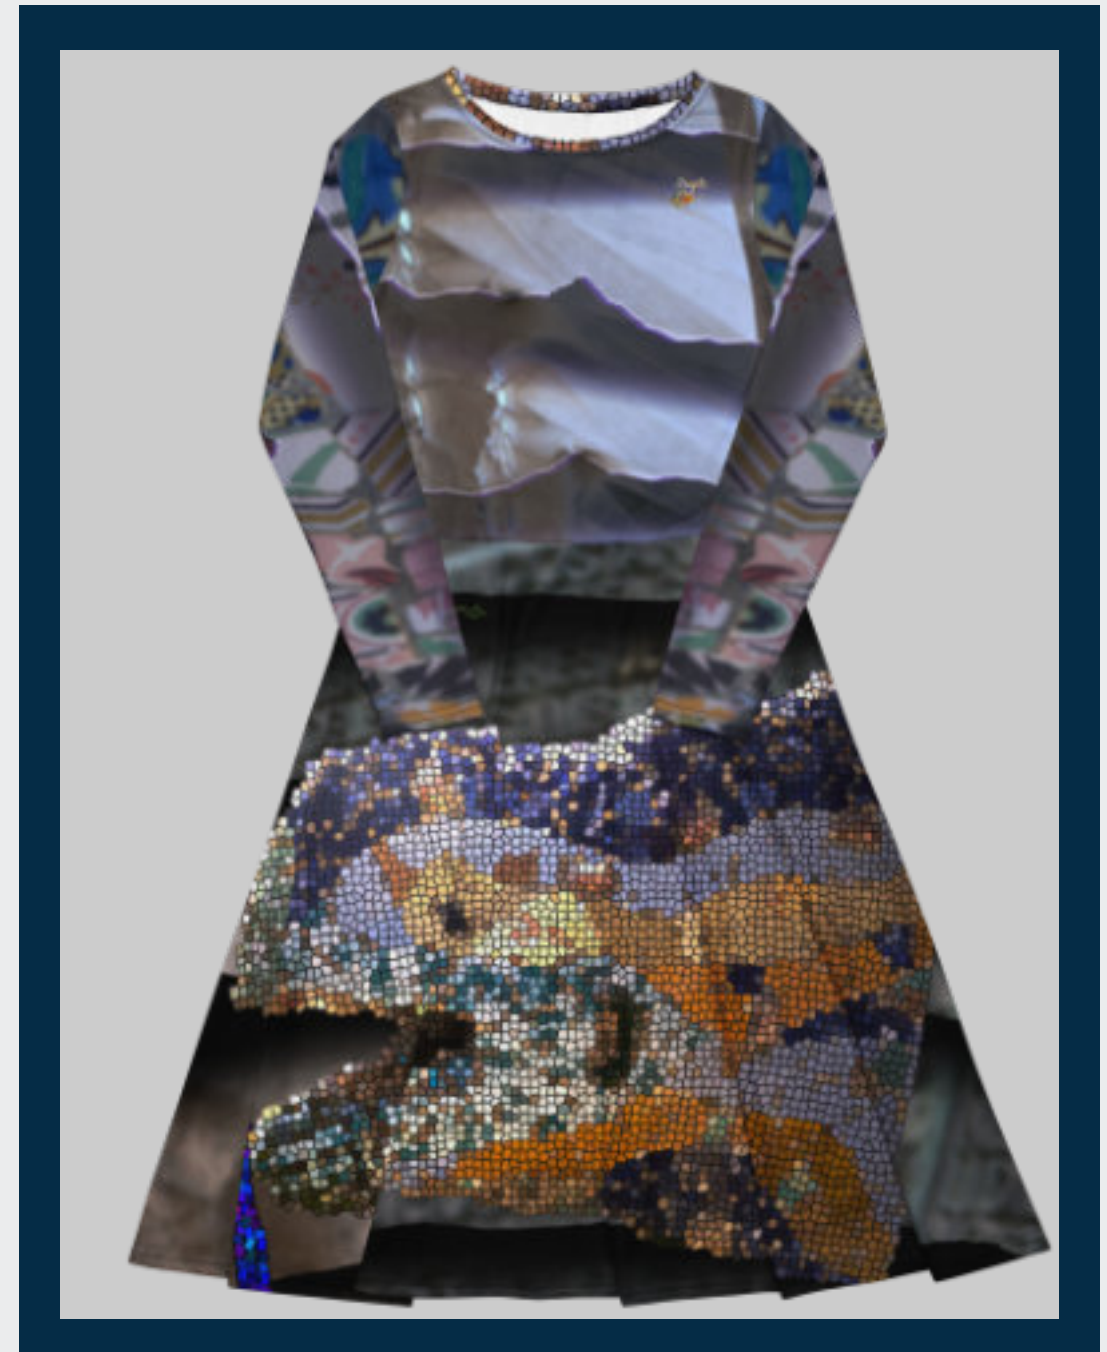

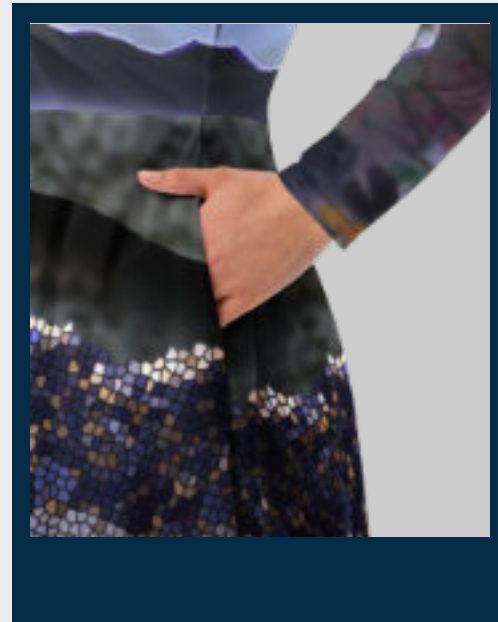

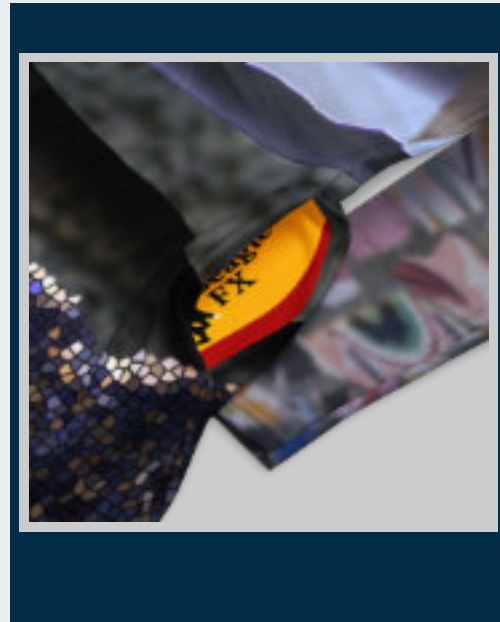

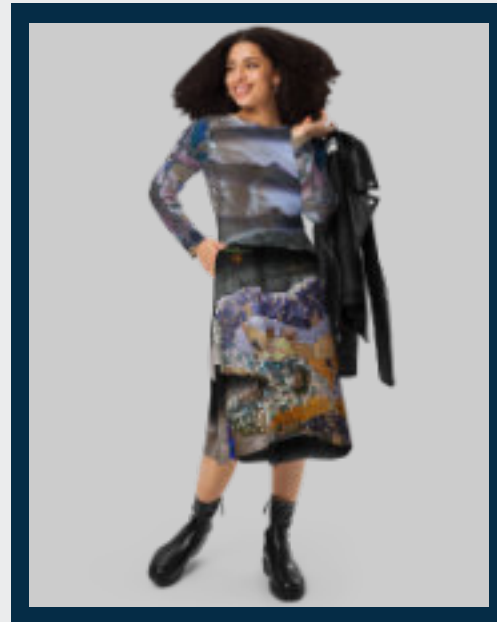

A Guadi Gown Long Sleeve Dress with Photos of Barcelona

Go make memories; we'll make them last.

Guadi Gown

Barcelona

Guadí's influence is everpresent throughout Barcelona. We pulled in Mosaic tile from Parc Guell and the entrance and architecture of la Sagrada Família.

The dress is a comfortable heavy yoga clothing material most in its element in cooler environments or times of year. Stash a phone or whatever in the BFX Spanish flag crossover pockets.

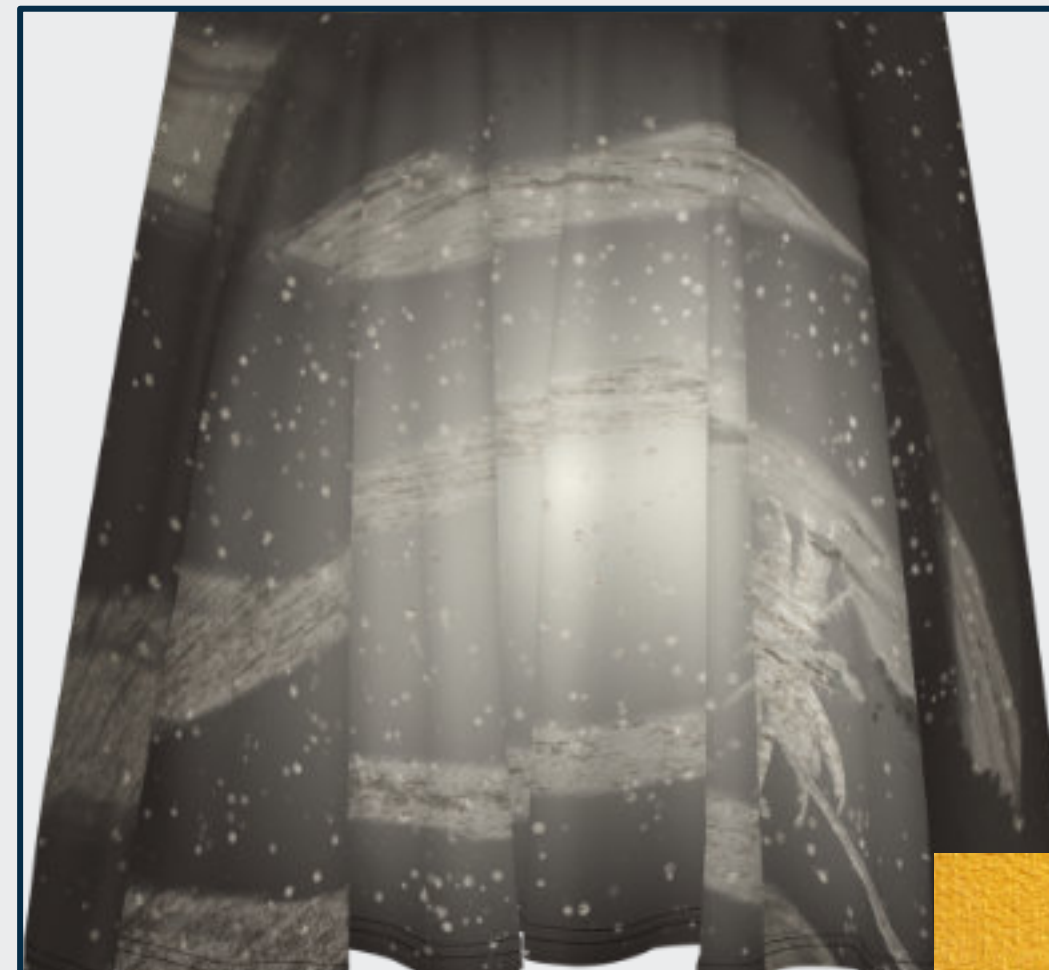

IMAGERY

Golden hues and panoramic views will adorn you while wearing this stunning photography from Beagle FX. The lower portion of this athletic dress features an ethereal photograph from the edge of Maui precisely at sunset. The dress's upper half shines with the last light of day on Oahu's Waikiki Beach.

Hawaiian Skirts

DRESSED in Gold

Wear this comfortable outfit and grab a cocktail whether you're on vacation or not.

We've built onto the sunrise and sunset theme seen throughout Beagle FX. The lower half of the athletic style dress features photography from sunrise atop the volcano Haleakalā in Maui. The top portion of the dress features a seasonal favorite in Maui. We were super lucky to catch a humpback calf in full breach.

Guadí's influence is here too. Behind Bean is a stained glass window from la Sagrada Família. Milky way stars are painted into the background. The front features our Aussie, Kerbey. He's dressed up like Chewie complete with crossbow. Chewbarka was originally a photo at the Dash Point beach. We layered in a bright backdrop of a sunset over our house in Washington, then drew stars and moons for the otherworldly background.

Turn YOUR Photos

Adult athletic jerseys are a light-weight perforated material that is fantastic for hot summer activity. Kiddos get a nicely brushed fabric suitable in summer or cool weather base layers.

Photos from trails to tarmac and bridge crossing to creekside all over the West and Midwest.

That's a patent truth. Sean got more serious about art in college. In fact he got serious enough to head to the patent office. His Sunset for the Sighted, Sunrise for the Blind competed for patents against large companies, including the likes of the multi-national Siemens.

Why the effort? It's not your typical painting. This one is heated behind individual areas of color, so someone who is blind can pick up the differences in color through the temperature variances.

What's it like to touch and without seeing it? One patron who was deaf/blind later in life, but had sight as a child described it like going back in her memory to a time when she could see.

You will get the same level of detail from an artist with decades of experience and dedication to creating.

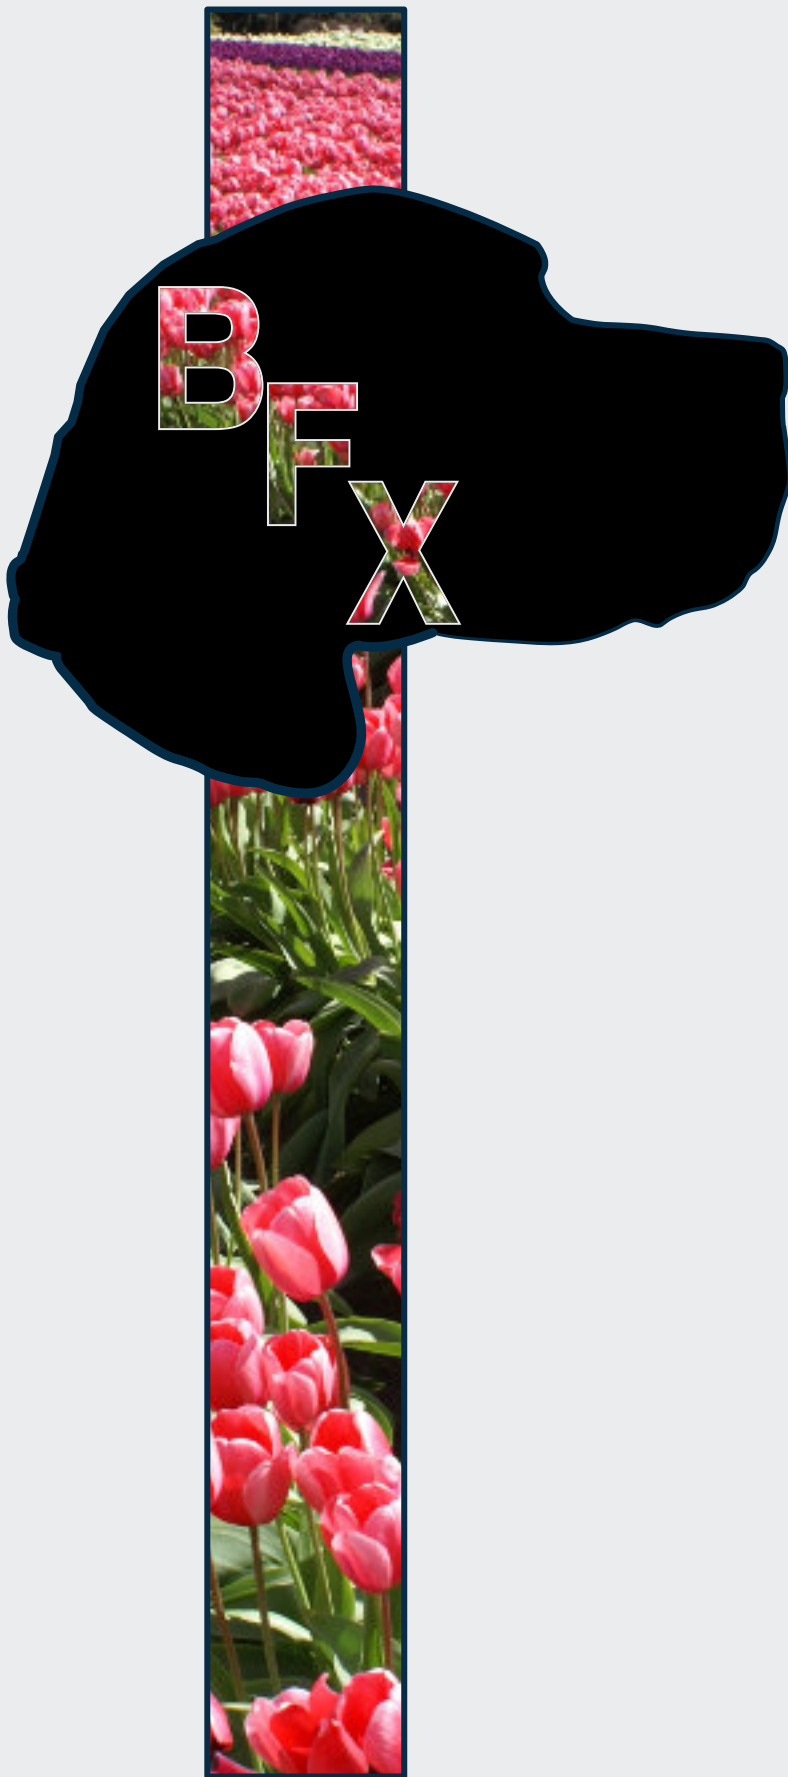

You make the memories, We make them last!
