

CREATING NEW RITUALS

Amity Vineyards sits atop the Amity Hills in the Willamette Valley, the heart of Oregon Wine Country. The first vines were planted in 1971, and as a consequence, our Pinot Noir, Pinot Blanc, and Riesling are produced from some of the oldest vines in the state. Ryan Harms from Union Wine Company and his brother, Eric Harms, have brought new energy to the winery after purchasing it in 2014. Eric concentrates on the business side of things, allowing Ryan to focus solely on producing the wine.

We experienced a beautiful spring resulting in a nice even bud break. Summertime in the valley was warm and unusually dry but September brought much needed rains that quenched the thirst of vines that were beginning to show signs of stress. Following the rains, we had a handful of weeks with warm (but not hot) days and cool evenings. Harvest was compact and plentiful producing grapes with rich tannins, full flavor development and lots of acidity. These wines are showing balance and elegance. 2018 will prove to be a banner year for the Willamette Valley with wines drinking fine in their youth, but with the ability to improve with age in the bottle.
