

The Prop 65 sticker on the product or product packaging is placed by the manufacturer and is required if the product is sold in the state of California.