

PlanBee Art Assessment : Can Buildings Speak? : KS1

Can Buildings Speak? Art

Group:

Year:

Term:

Lesson 1	Know that different types of buildings are used for different purposes.
	Know that building designs include a variety of shapes.
	Identify shapes in a variety of buildings.
Lesson 2	Recognise different features of buildings.
	Know what an architect is.
	Use different techniques and tools to create an image of a building.
Lesson 3	Make suggestions about the kind of patterns they might expect to find in a particular building.
	Gather a variety of patterns in a building using rubbings.
	Collate the patterns they have gathered and describe what they think and feel about them.
Lesson 4	Draw on ideas gathered to design a section of a mural.
	Understand how to use images, patterns and shapes to represent a particular building.
	Design a section of a mural to incorporate particular images, patterns and shapes.
Lesson 5	Follow a design to create a section for a class mural.
	Review their work as they are creating their section to make improvements.
	Evaluate their finished artwork and say what they think and feel about it.																	