English Assessment Grid: Chocolate Poetry: Year 4

ocolate Poetry
oup: Year: Term:
English
Can children explain what a narrative poem is?
Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read?
Can children answer questions about a poem?
Do children understand what a performance poem is?
Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully?
Can children perform a given poem themselves?
Do children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story?
Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem?
Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given?
Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest?
Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing?
Can children use their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem?
Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience?						á
Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem?
Can children perform their poem to an audience?
	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read? Can children answer questions about a poem? Do children understand what a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Do children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read? Can children answer questions about a poem? Do children understand what a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Do children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read? Can children answer questions about a poem? Do children understand what a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Do children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read? Can children answer questions about a poem? Do children understand what a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Do children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read? Can children answer questions about a poem? Do children answer questions about a poem? Do children understand what a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Do children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children answer questions about a poem? Can children name some ways in which a peer can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the ways in which a peer mornance of a poem can be made engaging for the suddience? Can children sperior and the ways in which a peer can be performed successfully? Can children sperior a given poem themselves? Can children devices and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children sperior to the sperior themselves in their own poem writing? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience? Can children perform their poem to an audience? Can children perform their poem to an audience?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children share their opinions of a poem they have read? Can children answer questions about a poem? Do children name some ways in which a peem can be performed successfully? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children use some of these devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience? Can children perform their poem to	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children answer questions about a poem? Can children answer questions about a poem? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the sudincer? Can children ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the sudincer? Can children ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the sudincer? Can children ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the sudincer? Can children ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the sudincer? Can children ways propriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children hake appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance of the level of the l	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children answer questions about a poem? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children name some ways in which a poem themselves? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was their notes and the checklist to create a chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children was appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children their poem to an audience? Can children their poem to an au	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children asswer questions about a poem? Can children nawer questions about a poem? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Can children remember the similarities between a narrative poem and a story? Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance performance perform their poem to an audience? Can children perform their poem to an audience?	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children aware questions about a poem? Can children aware questions about a poem? Can children understand what a performance poem is? Can children understand what a performance poem is? Can children understand what a performance poem is? Can children names some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Can children perform a given poem themselves? Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children explain some of the ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance poem? Can children perform their poem to an audience? Can children performance of a poem can be made engaging for the performance poem? Can children performance of a poem can be made engaging for the performance poem? Can children performance of a poem can be made engaging for the performance poem? Can children performance of the sequence? Can	English Can children explain what a narrative poem is? Can children amewor questions about a poem? Can children amewor questions about a poem? Can children name some ways in which a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a performance poem is? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children name some ways in which a poem can be performed successfully? Can children generate ideas for their own chocolate-themed narrative poem? Can children explain their ideas to a partner, and respond to suggestions given? Can children discuss and explain some of the devices used by poets to keep the reader's attention and interest? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of these devices in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the sequences in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the sequences in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the sequences in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the sequences in their own poem writing? Can children use some of the sequences in their own poem writing? Can children ways in which a performance of a poem can be made engaging for the audience? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance of a local of the sequence? Can children make appropriate minor adjustments to their narrative poem to turn it into a performance of the local o

Copyright @ PlanBee Resources Ltd 2020

www.planbee.com