

<h2 style="margin: 0;">Describing Dinosaurs</h2>
English
Lesson 1	Can children give an example of an adjective?
	Can children think of appropriate adjectives to describe a noun?
	Are children able to define what an adjective is/ does?
Lesson 2	Can children choose features to describe?
	Can children think of appropriate adjectives to describe features?
	Are children able to label features with an appropriate noun phrase?
Lesson 3	Can children describe what a full stop is and where it may appear in a sentence?
	Are children able to describe where a capital letter may be used in a sentence?
	Can children accurately punctuate a sentence with capital letters and full stops?
Lesson 4	Can children write a full descriptive sentence to describe a chosen dinosaur?
	Are children able to accurately use full stops to punctuate their sentences?
	Can children accurately use capital letters to punctuate their sentences?
Lesson 5	Can children verbally compare two nouns?
	Are children able to add 'er' to an adjective to create a comparative adjective?
	Can children complete a comparative sentence to compare two nouns?																		