

Geography Assessment Grid : Investigating Coasts : Year 3/4

Investigating Coasts
Group: <input type="text"/>		Year: <input type="text"/>		Term: <input type="text"/>
Geography
Lesson 1	Can children identify coastal areas using maps?
	Do children understand that coastal areas are constantly changing?
	Can children explain what erosion and depositional landforms are?
Lesson 2	Do children understand how coastal erosion takes place?
	Can children describe how caves, stacks and arches are formed?
	Do children understand that human activity can also cause erosion?
Lesson 3	Can children identify and explain different strategies for coastal management?
	Can children describe advantages and disadvantages of using coastal management strategies?
	Do children understand how coastal management strategies affect people's lives now and in the future?
Lesson 4	Can children identify different types of beaches?
	Can children describe the physical features of different types of beaches using appropriate vocabulary?
	Can children describe the human features of different types of beaches using appropriate vocabulary?
Lesson 5	Can children use maps to locate a coastal holiday location?
	Can children use secondary sources to research a coastal holiday location?
	Can children communicate in ways suitable to the task?
Lesson 6	Can children identify different viewpoints about the proposed building of the hotel?
	Can children explain the reasons behind the characters' opinions?
	Do children understand how changing land use affects people in different ways, now and in the future?																			