

Medicine and Disease

Group:

Year:

Term:

History

Lesson 1	Can children distinguish between a primary or secondary source?
	Can children give an example of a primary or secondary source?
	Can children compare the medical practices of two civilisations?
Lesson 2	Can children identify one or more aspects of medicine in the Roman era?
	Can children describe any aspects which influenced the Roman view of health and medicine?
	Are children able to compare Roman ideas with the ideas of modern culture or previously studied cultures?
Lesson 3	Can children name a medical treatment from the medieval period?
	Can children describe what happened to people and their beliefs during the plague?
	Are children able to identify lifestyle aspects which helped the spread of the plague?
Lesson 4	Can children pose their own questions about an artefact?
	Can children come up with possible hypotheses for their own questions, using evidence available to them?
	Can children name a treatment used in the Tudor period?
Lesson 5	Can children describe what medical care had been like before the Victorian era?
	Can children describe some of the ways in which medical care was improved during the Victorian era?
	Can children name some of the key individuals who made improvements in medical care during the Victorian era?
Lesson 6	Can children give a brief description of the NHS?
	Are children able to compare modern medicine with a period of past medicine?
	Can children name a particular important medical discovery in the past 100 years?
Lesson 7	Can children recall facts about a given period of history's medical understanding?
	Can children evidence their opinions with facts?
	Are children able to answer questions based on the history of medicine?																	