

Geography Assessment Grid : The Caribbean

The Caribbean
Group: <input type="text"/>		Year: <input type="text"/>		Term: <input type="text"/>
Geography
Lesson 1	Can children locate the Caribbean on a world map?
	Do children understand that the Caribbean is a collection of islands?
	Can children name and locate some of those islands?
Lesson 2	Do children understand what physical geography is?
	Can children describe some of the varied landforms found in the Caribbean?
	Can children use resources to research and locate some of these landforms?
Lesson 3	Can children explain the difference between weather and climate?
	Can children explain what the climate of the Caribbean is like?
	Can children use given data and other information to further their knowledge and understanding of the Caribbean climate?
Lesson 4	Can children identify ways the physical geography of the Caribbean affects the human geography?
	Can children identify ways the history of the Caribbean affects the human geography?
	Are children able to describe some different aspects of Caribbean culture?
Lesson 5	Can children explain what tourism is?
	Can children identify and describe some of the popular tourist attractions in the Caribbean?
	Do children understand some of the advantages and disadvantages of tourism?																				