

History Assessment Grid : The Changing Role of Women : Year 5/6

The Changing Role of Women
Group: <input type="text"/>		Year: <input type="text"/>		Term: <input type="text"/>
History
Lesson 1	Do children understand that the rights and roles of women have changed through time?
	Can children describe some of the origins of patriarchy?
	Can children describe some of the ways in which the rights of women differed from those of men from ancient times to the Renaissance?
Lesson 2	Do children understand that women were forbidden by law from undertaking certain roles?
	Can children explain some of the ways in which women were restricted during the Victorian era?
	Can children give examples of women who achieved great things despite the restrictions on them?
Lesson 3	Do children understand the term 'suffrage'?
	Can children explain who the suffragettes were, and how and why they campaigned for change?
	Can children name some individual suffragettes and describe their contribution to the movement?
Lesson 4	Do children know when the First World War took place?
	Can children explain the role women played in the war effort during WW1?
	Can children discuss the impact the war had on women's suffrage?
Lesson 5	Can children summarise how the position of women changed from ancient times to 1928?
	Can children use a variety of sources of information to find out about the position of women in society during the 1950s?
	Can children consider and evaluate primary and secondary sources of information, and assess their accuracy and value?
Lesson 6	Do children know what the term 'second-wave feminism' means?
	Can children describe some of the ways in which women's rights were improved in the 1960s and 1970s?
	Can children identify some of the different ways in which women were perceived during this time?
Lesson 7	Can children order key events in the history of women's rights chronologically?
	Can children name some of the key people involved in women's rights movements and evaluate their contributions?
	Can children discuss and evaluate the issue of gender equality today?																				