PlanBee

English Assessment Grid : The Hodgeheg : Year 2

oup: Year: Term:												4
English
Can children extract information from the text?
Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?
Are children able to summarise what happens in the story?
Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?
Are children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?
Are children able to explain why they think something is true or false?
Can children explain what generalisers are?
Are children able to give an example of a sentence opener?
Can children recall information about hedgehogs?
Can children identify features of a non-chronological report?
Are children able to describe the meaning of 'non-chronological'?
Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised?
Can child ren use subheadings t o or ganise the ir w riting?
Can children say out loud what they are writing about?
Can children write down ideas and key words?
Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?
Are children able to organise their writing using subheadings?
Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?
	Can children extract information from the text? Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs? Are children able to summarise what happens in the story? an children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'? Are children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials? Are children able to explain why they think something is true or false? Can children explain what generalisers are? Are children explain what generalisers are? Are children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children identify features of a non-chronological report? Are children able to describe the meaning of 'non-chronological'? Can children use subheadings to organise their writing are organised? Can children say out loud what they are writing about? Can children write down ideas and key words? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Are children able to organise their writing subheadings?	Can children extract information from the text? Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs? Are children able to summarise what happens in the story? an children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'? Are children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials? Are children able to explain why they think something is true or false? Can children explain what generalisers are? Are children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children identify features of a non-chronological report? Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised? Can children use subheadings to organise their writing? Can children write down ideas and key words? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Are children able to organise their writing using subheadings? Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?ver children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?ver children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Ver children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Ver children able to give an example of a sentence opener?Image: Can children recall information about hedgehogs?Can children recall information about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to describe the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Can children able to describe the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children use subheadings to organise their writing about?Can children say out loud what they are writing about?Image: Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?an children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?vre children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children recall information about hedgehogs?Can children recall information about hedgehogs?Image: Can children identify features of a non-chronological report?Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised?Image: Can children use subheadings to organise their writing?Can children write down ideas and key words?Image: Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words?Can children write down ideas and key words?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words?Can children write down ideas and key words?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words?Can children write down ideas and key words?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words?Can children write down ideas and key words?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words?Can children write down ideas and key words?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words?Can children write down ideas their writing using subheadings?Image: Can children write down ideas and key words? <t< th=""><th>Can children extract information from the text? Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs? Wre children able to summarise what happens in the story? an children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'? Wre children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials? Wre children able to explain why they think something is true or false? Can children explain what generalisers are? Wre children explain what generalisers are? Wre children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children identify features of a non-chronological report? Wre children able to describe the meaning of 'non-chronological'? Can children use subheadings to organise their writing are organised? Can children use subheadings to organise their writing? Can children write down ideas and key words? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Can children write down ideas and key words? Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers? Can children w</th><th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?an children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Can children identify features of a non-chronological report?Image: Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised?Image: Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised?Can children use subheadings to organise their writing?Image: Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Image: Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?<th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain ex</th><th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers of a non-chronological report?Image: Can children explain explain</th><th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain whet meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain whet generalisers are?Image: Can children explain whet generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain exp</th><th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they are writing are organised?Image: Can children explain exp</th><th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they date gehogs?Image: Can children able to explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning about?Image: Can children able to explain the explain the writing about?Image: Can children able to explain the explain the</th><th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information wabout hedgehogs?Image: Can children extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they they they they they they th</th></th></t<>	Can children extract information from the text? Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs? Wre children able to summarise what happens in the story? an children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'? Wre children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials? Wre children able to explain why they think something is true or false? Can children explain what generalisers are? Wre children explain what generalisers are? Wre children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children recall information about hedgehogs? Can children identify features of a non-chronological report? Wre children able to describe the meaning of 'non-chronological'? Can children use subheadings to organise their writing are organised? Can children use subheadings to organise their writing? Can children write down ideas and key words? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans? Can children write down ideas and key words? Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers? Can children w	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?an children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Can children identify features of a non-chronological report?Image: Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised?Image: Can children discuss how different genres of writing are organised?Can children use subheadings to organise their writing?Image: Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Image: Can children write a non-chronological report using their plans?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers?Image: Can children write descriptive sentences using sentence openers? <th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain ex</th> <th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers of a non-chronological report?Image: Can children explain explain</th> <th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain whet meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain whet generalisers are?Image: Can children explain whet generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain exp</th> <th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they are writing are organised?Image: Can children explain exp</th> <th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they date gehogs?Image: Can children able to explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning about?Image: Can children able to explain the explain the writing about?Image: Can children able to explain the explain the</th> <th>Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information wabout hedgehogs?Image: Can children extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they they they they they they th</th>	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain ex	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers of a non-chronological report?Image: Can children explain	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain whet meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain whet generalisers are?Image: Can children explain whet generalisers are?Image: Can children explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children explain exp	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they dephogs?Image: Can children explain why they they are writing are organised?Image: Can children explain exp	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children say what they already know about hedgehogs?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to summarise what happens in the story?Image: Can children able to extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children able to explain why they date gehogs?Image: Can children able to explain what generalisers are?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning of 'non-chronological'?Image: Can children able to explain the meaning about?Image: Can children able to explain the explain the writing about?Image: Can children able to explain the	Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information from the text?Image: Can children extract information wabout hedgehogs?Image: Can children extract information out of non-fiction materials?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain the meaning of the word 'fact'?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they think something is true or false?Image: Can children explain why they they they they they they they th

Copyright © PlanBee Resources Ltd 2020