

Geography Assessment Grid : The USA : Year 3/4

The USA
Group: <input type="text"/>		Year: <input type="text"/>		Term: <input type="text"/>
Geography
Lesson 1	Do children know that the USA is a country in North America?
	Can children locate the USA on a world map?
	Can children start to identify and locate some of the fifty states?
Lesson 2	Do children know that the USA is split into fifty states?
	Can children identify and locate the fifty states?
	Can children start to compare states?
Lesson 3	Can children identify and describe a variety of different landscapes?
	Can children compare landscapes and explain similarities and differences?
	Can children identify links between climate and landscapes?
Lesson 4	Can children identify and locate some of the major cities in the USA?
	Can children describe some American cities?
	Can children compare American cities by identifying similarities and differences?
Lesson 5	Do children know that a national park is a protected area of land?
	Do children know that national parks help to preserve wildlife?
	Can children describe the features of some American national parks?
Lesson 6	Do children know what earthquakes, tornados, blizzards and hurricanes are?
	Can children discuss the impacts of these natural phenomena on the USA?
	Can children identify areas of the USA where these phenomena are most likely to occur?
Lesson 7	Can children suggest where they would most like to visit in the USA based on their knowledge of the country?
	Can children describe some of the things they could see and do in the USA?
	Can children use their knowledge of the culture of America to help describe a visit?																		