

History Assessment Grid : What can we find out about ancient Egypt?: : Year 3/4

What can we find out about ancient Egypt?:
Group: <input type="text"/>		Year: <input type="text"/>		Term: <input type="text"/>
History
Lesson 1	Do children know the difference between ancient and modern?
	Can children locate Egypt on the map and describe its landscape?
	Can children ask and respond to questions using appropriate vocabulary?
Lesson 2	Can children explain what the landscape of ancient Egypt was like?
	Do children know why the Nile was so important to the Egyptian way of life?
	Can children explain how the Egyptian landscape impacted on people's everyday lives?
Lesson 3	Can children explain how Tutankhamen's tomb was discovered?
	Do children know why it was such a significant historical discovery?
	Can children explain how artefacts can tell us about life in the past?
Lesson 4	Can children suggest what an artefact was used for and who used it?
	Do children know why artefacts are so important in helping us learn about the past?
	Do children know why the Rosetta stone was such an important discovery?
Lesson 5	Can children sort information into different categories?
	Can children ask and answer questions about life in ancient Egypt?
	Can children use a variety of sources to find out information?
Lesson 6	Can children describe some ancient Egyptian beliefs about life and death?
	Can children explain the process of mummification?
	Can children infer and deduce information about the past from objects that have survived?
Lesson 7	Can children recall facts and details about the ancient Egyptian civilisation?
	Can children understand and organise information?
	Do children know why studying past civilisations is so important?																		