Galway Theatre Festival 2022

Galway Theatre is back and we can't wait to welcome audiences into our venues from the 29th of April to the 7th of May 2022!

Galway Theatre Festival features a week of exciting independent theatre, circus, spectacle, and storytelling, showcasing the vibrant performance, creativity and culture of the City of Tribes.

We are particularly delighted this year to present Tart, a co-production with Eimear Finan in the Mick Lally Theatre.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors, venue partners and funders, without them our festival would not be possible. We also can't forget our wonderful volunteers and interns. Our festival club will be in the fantastic Carroll's Bar on Dominick Street and we hope to see you there!

Look inside to see our timetable at a glance, or head to www.galwaytheatrefestival.com to read all about our 2022 programme!!

A Note On Accessibility

We want Galway Theatre Festival to be accessible to all. Should you face barriers to accessibility or require additional support, please inform the GTF Team and we will do all we can to help.

We also have an accessibility intern who will be focusing on our festival and how we can make future festivals more accessible. This intern will attend our events throughout the festival and will be happy to speak to anyone who has recommendations.

If you have any suggestions on how we may make our Festival more accessible, please let us know at galwaytheatrefestival@gmail.com.

COVID SAFETY

At the time of print the use of face masks in theatres is no longer mandatory. Patrons who wish to continue to wear face masks are more than welcome to do so, and we ask that patrons do not attend an event if they are experiencing symptoms of COVID-19. We will continue to have a number of low-key Covid-19 mitigation measures in all venues. Audience safety will remain our priority.
