

DIVINE ARTS 2017

Transforming Lives One Book at a Time

DIVINE ARTS was formed in 2010 as a curator and disseminator of ancient and modern knowledge that is emerging from the indigenous, wisdom, and scientific cultures worldwide.

Our authors — masters, teachers, and scientists — have come together from diverse disciplines to create DIVINE ARTS media. Our unity comes in knowing the sacredness of life, our place within it, and our desire to share what we have learned.

As a publisher, DIVINE ARTS sits at the crossroads of a new kind of digital Silk Road, where spiritual influences from all over the world are exchanged through print and digital media.

It is our intent to create works that empower and inspire generations of seekers who are looking for new ways to experience themselves and their place in the Cosmos.

GOODBYE PARKINSON'S, HELLO LIFE!

The Gyro-Kinetic Method for Eliminating Symptoms and Reclaiming Your Good Health

ALEX KERTEN WITH DAVID BRINN

Parkinson's disease, a disorder of the central nervous system, affects 1 million people in America and 10 million worldwide. In Goodbye Parkinson's, Hello life! Alex Kerten presents his breakthrough holistic technique that combines dance therapy, behavior modification, and martial arts, to prove that there is life beyond the diagnosis of PD.

"A fascinating hands-on explanation of how movement, music, and mindfulness can replace pills and pain."

—Professor Susan Shapiro, New York Times bestselling coauthor of Unhooked: How to Quit Anything

Alex Kerten is founder and director of the Gyro-Kinetics Center in Herzliya, Israel. He has been researching anatomy and the physiology of behavior for over 30 years and treats clients with movement disorders, specializing in Parkinson's disease.

David Brinn is the managing editor of The Jerusalem Post, Israel's leading English newspaper.

THE TOAD OF DAWN

5-MeO-DMT and the Rise of Cosmic Consciousness

DR. OCTAVIO RETTIG HINOJOSA

Introduction by Rak Razam

The Toad of Dawn is the dramatic story of how Dr. Octavio Rettig Hinojosa — a Mexican doctor with a crack cocaine addiction — came to heal himself by employing an ancient “treasure” (the Sonoran Desert Toad) almost forgotten for centuries. Under the auspices of the United Nations Venezuela Association, Dr. Rettig has shared 5-MeO-DMT with over 6000 people, eliminating chemical addictions, depression, anxiety disorders, insomnia, bronchitis, and trauma.

Dr. Octavio Rettig Hinojosa travels extensively throughout Mexico, the US, Australia, and Europe giving lectures and leading healing ceremonies.

Rak Razam is one of the world’s leading “experiential” journalists. He is the author of the critically acclaimed book Aya Awakenings: A Shamanic Odyssey, which served as the basis of a 2013 documentary featuring and co-directed by Razam.

AYAHUASCA

Rituals, Potions, and Visionary Art from the Amazon

ARNO ADELAARS, CHRISTIAN RÄTSCH, CLAUDIA MÜLLER-EBELING

The authors are recognized experts in the field of ethnology, anthropology, and pharmacology and demonstrate the use of Ayahuasca in shamanic rituals. They dive deeply into shamanic visionary worlds, explore the plants and the plant spirits, and share their encounters with Amazonian cultures and their artistic works.

Arno Adelaars lives in Amsterdam, and has explored psychedelic substances for 20 years, focusing on the prominence of psychoactive plants within shamanic cultures. He works as a freelance journalist and author, and was previously a reporter for Dutch and German news channels.

Christian Rätsch is an ethnologist and ethnopharmacologist, speaker, and author. He is the author of the classic masterwork The Encyclopedia of Psychoactive Plants.

Claudia Müller-Ebeling is an art historian and ethnologist specializing in visionary art. Over the last 20 years she has written about Korean shamanism, the Amazon region, and principles of shamanic art in Nepal.

AYAHUASCA JUNGLE VISIONS

A Coloring Book

ALEXANDER WARD

Ayahuasca Jungle Visions is a coloring book inspired by artist Alexander Ward's journey from the source of the Amazon River into the very heart of the Amazon Jungle. There, at the home to the greatest abundance of life on this sacred Earth, Ward encountered the ancient cultures and traditions of tribes that have learned to live in harmony with Mother Nature. The magnificent illustrations that grew from his travels call out to be filled with colorful vitality.

Alexander Ward is a world-traversing, multidisciplinary, visionary artist. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in traditional animation from the Arts University in Bournemouth and has worked as an art director for the animated feature film Back to the Sea (China) and as a conceptual artist for video games such as DJ Hero 2 (UK). He divides his time between the UK and Greece.

INCREDIBLE LIFE FORMS

A Coloring Book

ERNST HAECKEL

Enter the mysterious world of incredible life forms. These 50 exotic drawings show a multitude of beautiful life forms, each more marvelous than the last; jellyfish, starfish, sea slugs, star coral, and many others. We hope that you will enjoy bringing your own sense of color and vibrancy to the forms, and, at the same time, discover the deep and penetrating realization that all life is one.

Ernst Haeckel (1834–1919), a German biologist and philosopher, was known as one of the early exponents of Darwinism, advocating the evolution and continuity of all life from the beginning to the present. His drawings, published in ten portfolios of ten plates each (1899–1904) under the title Kunstformen der Natur, were instrumental in spreading the acceptance of Darwinism throughout the world.

*The Life and Practice of
Zen Master Jun
Po Denis Kelly Roshi*

KEITH MARTIN-SMITH

Denis Kelly's life is part Hunter S. Thompson, part Timothy Leary, and part Eckart Tolle. From his beginnings in an abusive and alcoholic home in Wisconsin to becoming a major force in the counterculture movement, and then from a life on the run and in prison to a life in a monastery and in service, it is as entertaining as it is inspirational.

"There is something in this book for everyone: spiritual seekers and unrepentant sinners alike will find Kelly's ride hilarious, frustrating, poignant, and thoroughly human..."

— ForeWord Reviews

"An entertaining picture of Denis Kelly battling his demons and having a pretty good time doing it..."

— Tricycle Magazine

"Written with heart and extraordinary skill, this is the story of our time, an absolute must-read for anyone with even a passing interest in human evolution..."

— Ken Wilber, author of Integral Spirituality

"This real-life saga of a true spiritual warrior is a time capsule colorfully and poignantly conveying the powerful emergence and evolution of a cultural revolution from the inside out."

— Andrew Cohen, founder of EnlightenNext, author of Evolutionary Enlightenment

Keith Martin-Smith is a freelance writer in Boulder, CO, where he teaches Northern Shaolin Kung Fu, Buddhism, and writing. In 2007, Keith met Jun Po Denis Kelly, and in 2010 was given the dharma name Kogen (Tiger Eye) and the title of sensei (teacher).

THE DIVINE ART OF DYING
How to Live Well While Dying
KAREN SPEERSTRA & HERBERT ANDERSON

The Divine Art of Dying looks at the unique moment when a person turns toward death and examines what the dying person and his or her caregivers can expect. Based on the author's own current experience, it's about how we might die well and live well up to the very end of our physical existence. Combining personal stories with solid research on palliative and hospice care, this book identifies the decisions the dying one and his or her loved ones and friends must make.

"The best book of its genre."

— New Perspectives

"[A] courageous and welcome addition to the end-of-life genre, and an intellectually rich and passionately intimate exploration of dying. A valuable resource; this book brims with wisdom and grace."

THE GOD MOLECULE

My Journey to 5MeO-DMT and the Spiritual Path to Divine Light

GERARDO RUBEN SANDOVAL ISAAC, MD, OB-GYN

FOREWORD BY MARTIN W. BALL

"Move over, ayahuasca. Looks like the magic toad ride is the next big thing for entheogenic explorers."

— Don Lattin, bestselling author of The Harvard Psychedelic Club

"The author has had an astounding and intense life that he shares in his gentle and honest story. Most serious psychedelic explorers remain fixated on the psychedelic that first opened them to larger consciousness. Few people have had as much, as varied, and as meaningful psychedelic experiences. Given the sheer volume of his experiences, as he himself says, most people would've become insane. Instead, he became a practicing physician and now divides his time between his medical practice and helping people make the best possible use of the short acting, most powerful entheogen, 5-MeO-DMT. His teaching is a gift, as is this book about it."

— James Fadiman, PhD is a microdose researcher and author of The Psychedelic Explorer's Guide: Safe, Therapeutic, and Sacred Journeys

RECIPES FOR A SACRED LIFE

True Stories and a Few Miracles

RIVVY NESHAMA

Over-informed and over-connected, people today seek deeper meaning and true connection — but they're short on time and resistant to anything too didactic, religious, or long. In the tradition of Anne Lamott, Mitch Albom, and Rachel Naomi Remen, Recipes for a Sacred Life meets these needs with its short, true tales steeped in the magic of day-to-day life and the wisdom of ancient traditions.

Written with heart and humor, these interrelated tales are created around those everyday encounters — with friends, nature, lovers, and strangers — that can suddenly put us in touch with the sacred, adding love, connection, and purpose to our lives.

"Neshama's stories are uplifting, witty, and wise: one can't go wrong with a recipe like that. The timeless wisdom she serves up is food for the soul."
