ABOUT THE COLLABORATION

Kneeland Co., a Los Angeles based vintage textile library, was founded in 2010 by Joanna Williams as a way of sharing her discoveries, inspirations, and ideas. Kate Temple Reynolds, of Temple Studio, met Joanna back in 2017 and was an immediate fan girl of Joanna's extensive collection, as well as her magnetic personality and vast knowledge of historic patterns and motifs.

The two companies have now collaborated on a collection of rugs, aiming to share a bit of the great sense of adventure that resides within the Kneeland name.
