

Jean Baillette-Prudhomme

Laureen Baillette; her mother, Marie-France; and her sister, Justine, are Champagne Baillette-Prudhomme, a celebrated 5-hectares estate in Trois-Puits on the slopes of Montagne de Reims. A sixth-generation vigneron, Laureen is passionate about every step of the Methode Champenoise from cultivating the vines and pressing the grapes (in a traditional press painted fuschia) to managing vintification and riddling each and every bottle by hand.

JEAN BAILLETTE-PRUDHOMME

Brut Nature Premier Cru

- SEE Golden with a smooth effervescent glow
- SMELL Grandma's shortbread cookies, worn leather and potpourri
- TASTE Preserved lemon and developed notes of dried apricot and pear, licorice and pleasant bitter herbs. Fresh and smooth on the palate with satisfying structure and tart acidity that lingers in the finish.
- PAIR Pour these bubbles with takeout sushi, and don't skimp on the wasabi and ginger.
- CELEBRATE There's a full moon tonight, and you're ready to harness its big, bright energy to set new intentions and goals for the weeks to come. Be more present, put your phone down more often, celebrate every day — cheers to a new moon and a new you!
