Mikey is a short, stout, harness-compatible Dual Density O2 dildo made to feel absolutely real. Mikey features a Super Soft™ outer layer of silicone and a dense inner layer, specifically designed to deliver maximum satisfaction through a realistically familiar feel. We've created a thicker base for added stability when used with a harness and sculpted exaggerated veins on the shaft for extra pleasure. Its intense girth provides vaginal fullness while an exaggerated head with no inner core provides soft, dramatic stimulation. There's nothing else on the market that feels as realistic as Mikey.

All Tantus toys are made from Tantus' own unique formula of 100% Ultra-Premium Silicone.
