

Nature's blueprint for health.

ION* goes beyond the average pet supplement to embrace health at a cellular level. By drawing inspiration from the intelligence of nature (and the ground from which it sprouts), our soil-derived solution is innately designed to protect and nourish your pet's gut. Build a strong defense against toxins and naturally reawaken microbial communication. The benefits that follow from that beautifully balanced combination are vast.

Foster connection at a cellular level.

Get to the root of pet health by starting with the gut and get to the root of gut health by starting with tight junction integrity. Tight junctions are the seals between cells that work intelligently to allow nutrients in and keep toxins out. ION* is shown to increase the production of these unsung heroes of gut health across six species.
