Gul Meena

A woman with long dark hair is standing in a colonnade of large, weathered stone pillars. She is wearing a bright pink, cold-shoulder top with intricate floral embroidery in blue, green, and gold. Over her shoulders is a long, flowing shawl or dupatta with a wide border featuring a colorful geometric and floral pattern in shades of blue, pink, and gold, with tassels hanging from the edges. She is also wearing a long pearl necklace, large blue hoop earrings, and several rings. The background shows a long perspective of the stone pillars receding into the distance under a clear sky.
