BARNIE'S COFFEE AND SE7EN BITES COLLABORATION CREATES THE PERFECT CUP OF JOE

The Se7en Bites Special Blend is brewing in the restaurant and available for purchase by the pound.

Orlando, Fla. – (April 9, 2019) Recently, Barnie's Coffee & Tea and Se7en Bites, two of Orlando's most sought-after culinary brands, collaborated to create Se7en Bites Special Blend coffee. The goal to create the best cup of diner coffee with just enough acid and strength to stand up to the richness and delectable flavors in each bite of Trina Gregory-Propst's southern comfort food-centric breakfasts, lunches, and luscious desserts.

Brewed fresh in the restaurant and available for purchase by the pound onsite, Se7en Bites Special Blend was masterfully created by Barnie's director of coffee programing, Dustin Finch. The collaboration is a first for Barnie's, and as much musing went into what is poured into every cup as Se7en Bites puts into every bite.

"Collaborating with Trina and seeing her passion and creativity at work has been an absolute delight," said Scott Uguccioni Chief Sales & Marketing Officer at Barnies Coffee & Tea Co. "She knew exactly what she wanted to create with Se7en Bites Special Blend and we know it is going to be a huge hit with her many fans and followers."

"I knew if the original Orlando coffee company was willing to make a special blend just for us, then we've made it," said Trina Gregory-Propst owner of Se7en Bites. "We believe we have created the very best cup of coffee to conjure up memories and complement our food. Since the coffee can be purchased in the restaurant, it's the perfect way for our fans in Orlando and beyond to have a taste of Se7en Bites at home."

In addition to the Special Blend, Barnie's "Cold Brew" is also now available at Se7en Bites.

Barnie's Coffee & Tea was founded in 1980 to bring great coffee to everyone —not just the lucky citizens of cosmopolitan neighborhoods. Now that the whole world is coffee-crazy, the company delivers on that mission with category-wide consumer products at a variety of price points and flavor profiles, from exclusive micro-batches to popular flavored coffees, and from single-serve solutions to wholesale and office coffee.

Se7en Bites, located in the heart of Orlando's popular Milk District, specializes in nostalgic southern comfort food with a modern twist. Inspired by her beloved "Grammy" and the childhood memories of their delicious culinary creations, Trina Gregory-Propst would go on to have such a love for delicious comfort fare and well-appointed meals that she'd spend all her free time experimenting with recipes, while still whipping up the beloved classics she was taught. A Food Network regular, Trina can be frequently found at the restaurant greeting her fan following from around the globe.
