Sunday Night® Foods Named a NEXTY Finalist for Best Vegan Product

DES MOINES, Iowa (Feb. 21, 2024) – Sunday Night® Foods has been named a NEXTY Award Finalist for Best Vegan Product for its new Vegan Chocolate Premium Sauce from the New Hope Network. Sunday Night will be showcasing its Vegan sauce March 12-16 at Natural Products Expo West in Booth N1043 in North Hall 100 at the Anaheim Convention Center in Anaheim, California.

The NEXTY Awards recognize the best new CPG products for their innovation, inspiration and integrity. A panel of food experts selected 154 finalists from nearly 1,500 products — of which 35 will win a coveted NEXTY Award on March 14. The full list can be found here.

“Becoming a NEXTY Award Finalist is a testament to our craft in perfecting a silky, glossy chocolate ganache from the finest, pure vegan ingredients,” said Eileen Gannon, Founder and CEO of Sunday Night Foods.

Sunday Night’s luxurious, velvety sauces are made without corn syrup, preservatives, palm oil or emulsifiers. The premium ingredients allow the pure flavors to shine through: Rich, robust chocolate with fragrant, fresh-brownie cocoa notes and an essence of ripened fruit and warm spices, with hints of caramel, pure vanilla and sea salt.

“Consumers want better food, but they are busy,” said Gannon. “We created our sauces so people never have to compromise on taste and quality, even when they don’t have time.”

More than just for ice cream, Sunday Night sauces can be quickly transformed into homemade cakes, pies, puddings, frostings and drinks by adding just a few ingredients. More than 50 recipes and sweet inspirations can be found at SundayNightFoods.com.

“Our brand isn’t just about the food – it’s about helping people connect around a table or a couch or a campfire, whether it’s in person or on a video call thousands of miles apart,” said Gannon. “We created the Sunday Night brand so people can easily enjoy that same feeling of comfort, care and kindness any time they wish.”

Sunday Night donates 1 percent of sales to the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI).
