VTCT / ITEC

Both VTCT & ITEC are both an Ofqual approved awarding bodies. Both bodies are under the same umbrella but assessments & criteria's are slightly different. They are widely recognised across the UK & worldwide, meaning they are approved by any training provider.

They are an excellent choice in courses as they are specialists in regulated vocational & technical qualifications

Some differences you may see, is that there are less paperwork & assignments involved in ITEC qualifications, which makes some of their awards an appealing choice in beauty therapy.
