

Preparation Workbook for

2010 Manitoulin Youth Camp

Dear Intermediate Young Person,

I am glad that you are interested in coming to the Manitoulin Youth Camp this summer, God Willing.

Our subject this year is "Esther - Saviour of her people".

This workbook is part of your pre-camp assignment. There are two components:

The first part is a special project. This is work which you can hopefully share with the other class members during the camp week.

The second part is a series of questions based the book of Esther. By completing the questions ahead of time you will have a good background for our studies during the week.

I would make the following suggestions to help you prepare for our week of studies around our theme "Esther – Saviour of her people":

1. Plan to READ the appropriate chapters & verses regularly to get familiar with them.

2. Work through the question section of the workbook, setting goals to finish on time. For example, 10-15 questions per week.

Don't get frustrated; just give it your best shot. Some of these are 'thinking' questions so don't be afraid to ask someone else for help!

3. Work on your special project, again setting goals to ensure it is completed before camp starts.

Remember, the more you personally put into this study the more you will get out of it!

May God bless you as you labour in His Word, that together at Youth Camp we might all be able to share what we have learned and be prepared for the return of Christ.

See you in July, God Willing,

Uncle Chris.

SPECIAL PROJECTS

Type 1: Oral Presentation, Essay or Seminar.

The following suggested topics would be suitable for a 5 to 10 minute presentation or seminar to the rest of the class, or an essay of about 3 typed pages.

If you choose a presentation please try to make use of maps and diagrams to enhance it. You can also make use of a computer and LCD projector if you like! Also make a one page summary of your presentation and make 40 copies of this for the other class members.

If you do an essay, please make 1 copy of it for your teacher to keep, and 40 copies of a one page summary to give to the other class members.

Some suggested topics (in no particular order):

1. A character study of one of the characters from the book of Esther.

(Esther, Haman, Mordecai, The King, Vashti, etc)

2. God's Providence as seen in the Life of Esther (despite the fact the name of God never appears in the book!)

- 3. Faith and Courage demonstrated in the life of Esther.
- 4. "Enemy in the House" dealing with our 'Haman Nature'.
- 5. Mordecai as a type of Christ.
- 6. Your choice. Contact me if you have another idea you would like to present.

Type 2: Creative Projects

Some of you may not want to do a talk or an essay and would rather let your creative energy be channelled in another direction.

There are many very dramatic scenes in this story.

Be sure you know the Biblical account very well and bring out the details and lessons. You will need to do just as much research and study for a creative project as for a talk or essay.

Here are some ideas:

1. Dramatization. Write a skit or short play based on one section or event from the life of Esther. The skit may be historical or a modern day setting based on the principles from these chapters. If possible, find a couple of friends to help you enact your play for all of us to enjoy.

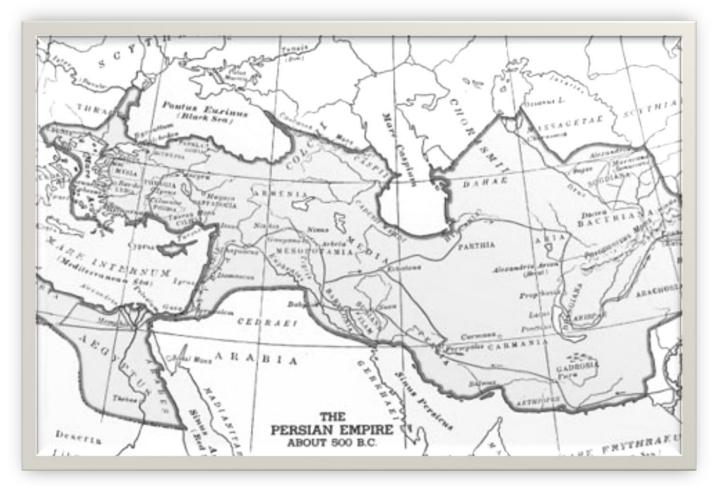

- 2. Draw a picture or make a model from one of the incidents in Esther's life.
- 3. Write a short story in a modern setting, based on an incident from the life of Esther.
- 4. Make a crossword puzzle based on the Life of Esther.
- 5. Create a board game or maze based on Esther's life.

Mordecai had defeated his adversary, Haman, but now had to provide a way for each member of his community to be saved. This is like Christ, who defeated sin in his own body, and also provided a way for us to have victory – we are involved in the battle. He accomplished the victory, but we have to be engaged in the outworking of it in our own lives!
