

DNO seeks to inspire action. We make products and share ideas that work to build the world we wish to see. A portion of proceeds is used to support cultural organizations and produce creative content – always engaging with and uplifting our communities.

We are a growing retail brand looking for active and motivated individuals to push for growth and new opportunities. We are hiring assistant retail managers for our Garden District and Downtown locations.

Who You Are

- A friendly, people-person who enjoys an active and occasionally fast-paced retail environment
- A team player with a positive outlook
- Detail-oriented with strong interpersonal and leadership skills
- Enjoys motivating others and contributing to team efforts
- Effective problem-solver and communicator
- Have a strong eye for merchandising and visual aesthetics
- 1-2 years retail experience in retail management (assistant manager or higher / service industry mgmt will also be considered)
- Available 15+ hours per week (weekend availability is preferred)

What You'll Do

- Communicate effectively with our sales and management teams
- Ensure that the sales team is providing great customer service
- Motivate and guide the sales team to ensure sales goals are met and exceeded
- Track inventory including low stock levels and inventory discrepancies
- Assist with reorders and receiving restocks
- Fulfill online orders
- Maintain floor merchandising and restocking standards
- Help the manager with hiring and training new sales associates
- Anticipate and remedy issues related to staff and customer relations/concerns

Please email your resume, availability, and a little about yourself to hi@dno.la. Feel free to send any other information that you feel could be relevant such as interests, references, or social media/website links. Thanks!
