GETTING STARTED _____

1. When is the last time your well-laid plans fell apart?

How do you feel when someone does not go along with your plans?

DIGGING DEEPER _____

1. Jesus' followers did not expect Him to die; but God wasn't done. Read Luke 9:21-22. How was the empty tomb part of Jesus' plan?

Why is it hard to trust God when our plans don't match up with His?

2. Read 1 Corinthians 15:1-5. What is Paul reminding the Corinthians about? Why do you think he's doing this?

In verses 3 and 4 Paul gives the content of the Gospel. What is the Gospel message?

How crucial is the cross and resurrection to the Gospel and why?

Both are stated “in accordance with the Scriptures.” Why is this so important?

3. In Luke 24:8 we're told the women at the tomb “remembered his words.” We need to remember what Jesus said and taught. According to the following passages, what are some of Jesus' words we tend to forget?
 - Matthew 5:38-44

 - Matthew 6:34

 - Luke 9:23

4. Read the verses below. How can we put ourselves in a position to better remember what Jesus said?
 - Colossians 3:12

 - 1 Timothy 6:11

 - James 1:22

PRACTICAL APPLICATION _____

1. Who can you proclaim the resurrection to this week?

2. How does the empty tomb give you confidence in God's plan for humanity?
