(Questions and Scriptures for further personal study)

1. Why is it important for a leader to build a team before beginning any project?
2. You have heard it said before, “many hands make the work light.” How does what we learned from Nehemiah 3 apply to the church today?
3. Each individual and group understood they were part of a much bigger goal (rebuilding the walls). What is the church working towards today?
4. What well-known building project is described in Genesis 11:1-9? Contrast the motives of its builders with those in Nehemiah 3. How many names and details about the builders of the Tower of Babel are recorded? What lesson can we draw from this?
5. What kind of a builder are you? How can we build our lives to make God’s name great and not our own?

How does the way we handle money, relationships and time reflect our desire to build God’s kingdom rather than our own?

Are you serving somewhere to help the church reach its goal to “seek and save that, which is lost”?
