GETTING STARTED _____

1. What are the first three things you usually tell about yourself when you meet a new person?

What does the way we introduce ourselves to others reveal about the way we view ourselves?

DIGGING DEEPER _____

1. In Luke 18, it's clear money and materialism were idols in the Rich Young Ruler's life. How do riches get in the way of a person entering the Kingdom of God?

How do the following verses help us keep our perspective of money and wealth in balance?

- Deuteronomy 8:18
- Ecclesiastes 5:19
- Luke 12:15
- 1 Timothy 6:17-18

2. What things in your life are harder to give up for the cause of Christ than others?

3. Many people put their security or confidence in things rather than the mercy of God. From these verses, identify the areas where people are tempted to place their hope.

- Matthew 23:5-6
- Luke 12:19-20
- Philippians 3:4-6

4. What possible losses did Jesus mention in Luke 18:29-30 that one might experience by following Him? What do we risk missing spiritually if we don't surrender our lives to Jesus?

PRACTICAL APPLICATION _____

1. How can we assure others that Jesus is worth everything we give up for Him?
2. How does Jesus' promise (Luke 18:30) inspire us to be willing to let go of the worldly things we put our confidence in?
